

Did I Hear You Right?
Acts 21:1-14

Rich O'Toole

07/26/26

I. Leaving the Ephesian elders. Acts 21:1-4

The word parted in Acts 21:1 means to be _____ away from something.

- Salvation is open to all people who will receive the gift of God in Christ, regardless of nationality, ethnicity, or _____.

The people prophesying did hear from the Holy Spirit, and so did Paul. The word given to the people was to inform Paul of his future, but Paul going to Jerusalem was a part of God's _____.

II. Leaving Tyre. Acts 21:5-7

Koinonia describes the deep bond that connects believers to the Lord and to one another. It goes beyond socializing; it is the expression of the "_____" of Christian brothers and sisters.

- This dispersion of Christians caused the Church to grow from a local movement in Jerusalem into a global body of Christ. The _____ of Stephen was the catalyst for the scattering.

III. The Evangelist and his family. Acts 21:8-9

This is not Philip the Apostle, but rather Philip, one of the first deacons of the Church. He was called the Evangelist, which means _____ in the original language.

- The Eunuch was reading from the Book of Isaiah, but he did not understand it. Philip went to the chariot and shared the Gospel with him. The Eunuch _____, was saved, and was baptized.

IV. A message from Judea. Acts 21:10-14

Here in Acts 21, Agabus used an object lesson to act out his message to Paul about the _____ he would face in Jerusalem.

- Paul obviously felt that the prophecy was given to inform him of his future, but Paul _____ to Jerusalem was a part of God's plan.

V. Practical Application.

The Holy Spirit will never contradict the Scriptures He inspired. Any impression, feeling, dream, or _____ that opposes the Word of God is not from the Lord.

- As you immerse yourself in His Word, have a vital prayer life, submit to the Holy Spirit, and obey what He has already said to do, you will grow in confidence in _____ His voice.

Did I Hear You Right?
Acts 21:1-14

Rich O'Toole

07/26/26

I. Leaving the Ephesian elders. Acts 21:1-4

The word parted in Acts 21:1 means to be _____ away from something.

- Salvation is open to all people who will receive the gift of God in Christ, regardless of nationality, ethnicity, or _____.

The people prophesying did hear from the Holy Spirit, and so did Paul. The word given to the people was to inform Paul of his future, but Paul going to Jerusalem was a part of God's _____.

II. Leaving Tyre. Acts 21:5-7

Koinonia describes the deep bond that connects believers to the Lord and to one another. It goes beyond socializing; it is the expression of the "_____" of Christian brothers and sisters.

- This dispersion of Christians caused the Church to grow from a local movement in Jerusalem into a global body of Christ. The _____ of Stephen was the catalyst for the scattering.

III. The Evangelist and his family. Acts 21:8-9

This is not Philip the Apostle, but rather Philip, one of the first deacons of the Church. He was called the Evangelist, which means _____ in the original language.

- The Eunuch was reading from the Book of Isaiah, but he did not understand it. Philip went to the chariot and shared the Gospel with him. The Eunuch _____, was saved, and was baptized.

IV. A message from Judea. Acts 21:10-14

Here in Acts 21, Agabus used an object lesson to act out his message to Paul about the _____ he would face in Jerusalem.

- Paul obviously felt that the prophecy was given to inform him of his future, but Paul _____ to Jerusalem was a part of God's plan.

V. Practical Application.

The Holy Spirit will never contradict the Scriptures He inspired. Any impression, feeling, dream, or _____ that opposes the Word of God is not from the Lord.

- As you immerse yourself in His Word, have a vital prayer life, submit to the Holy Spirit, and obey what He has already said to do, you will grow in confidence in _____ His voice.