

CLARIFICATIONS, 3RD INTERNATIONAL NEGOTIATION CHAMPIONSHIP

Please be noted that these clarifications shall be attached to the proposition.

1. The Proposition is a Negotiation Process only, not a Mediation. For the Official copy of the Proposition, please check our Website. (infinitylexathonsociety.in)
2. Have the parties begun the process of mediation at the time of this negotiation or this negotiation is happening pre-mediation?

A- There is no reference to Mediation in this set up, it is a Negotiation Process only.

3. When are we getting the client teams assigned?

A- Two days before the Rounds, it shall be communicated

4. Please provide a breakdown of the parties in the negotiation, whether it is the player and a club, the 2 clubs against each other or the player versus both the clubs.

A- It is Club (Swansea AFC) versus Club (Leeds United), only

5. Was there an official announcement (social media, press release, commercial agreements) with respect to the Transfer?

A- Although the clubs have not made an official announcement, which usually is done post the papers come through, which did not; Deadline day Transfers or transfer of players in general is covered by media at large, considering both these clubs are popular leagues in England and the world.

6. Did Swansea's board already know of the circumstances (i.e, a disappointing season etc.) - did the season happen before or after the loan deal?

A- Yes, the aforementioned "disappointing-season" happened prior.

INFINITY LEXATHON SOCIETY

7. By what names will the client and counsel of each of the sides (Swansea City and Leeds United) be referred to, since the rules bar using our real names in the competition?

A- Any fictional names may be used.

8. Will the minutes allotted for opening statements be for one team or both teams collectively?

A- The minutes vary from round to round and they are collective in nature.

9. Will FIFA regulations, the Football Association, and EFL rules and regulations apply?

A- Yes, they do. But they are not exhaustive.
