ABOUT ILS

The "Infinity Lexathon Society" is a burgeoning initiative led by a group of passionate law students, driven by a shared enthusiasm for legal exploration and collaboration. Despite its modest beginnings, the society is fueled by a fervent commitment to creating a vibrant platform for legal enthusiasts to connect, learn, and grow.

At its core, the Infinity Lexathon Society is deeply invested in organizing and hosting negotiation and mediation competitions, recognizing the invaluable skills honed through this practice. These competitions provide a unique opportunity for participants to sharpen their negotiation tactics, enhance their communication abilities, and gain invaluable real-world experience in navigating legal scenarios.

While negotiation competitions serve as a cornerstone of the society's activities, it also endeavors to foster a broader culture of intellectual curiosity and professional development. Through workshops, guest lectures, and networking events, members are encouraged to engage with diverse perspectives, expand their legal knowledge, and cultivate essential skills for success in the legal profession. Despite its small size, the Infinity Lexathon Society exudes a spirit of ambition and innovation, continually seeking new ways to enrich the legal education experience for its members.

With a shared vision of creating a supportive and collaborative community, the society welcomes all who share its passion for the law and its transformative potential. Join us as we embark on this exciting journey of exploration and growth in the fascinating realm of legal negotiation and mediation.

OUR PAST EDITIONS

The National Negotiation Championship (NNC), organized by the Infinity Lexathon Society, hosted its inaugural and second editions in 2024. The first edition, held on April 6-7, saw participation from 22 teams representing prominent institutions, with senior mediators and arbitrators serving as judges. Shaunak Wagle and Tushar Umesh from Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai, were crowned champions, while Ananya Mohindra and Nihshank Upadhyay from O.P. Jindal Global University were runners-up. The second edition, held on August 17-18, continued the momentum with 22 teams competing. Arin Agrawal and Shivam Goyal from Maharashtra National Law University, Mumbai, secured victory, while Siddharth Mishra and Kaivalya Sharma from Dr. Ram Manohar Lohia National Law University were declared runners-up.

Expanding its repertoire, the Infinity Lexathon Society hosted the First International Mediation Championship on October 5-6, 2024, virtually. Participants from prestigious global institutions competed under the guidance of esteemed mediators and arbitrators. Abhinandan Sharma from Government Law College, Mumbai, won the Best Mediator award, and Srijan Mishra from Jindal Global Law School was the Runner-up Mediator. Vitasta Tikoo and Kartika Arora from the University of Petroleum and Energy Studies, Dehradun, won the Best Negotiating Pair title, while S. Arul Cheryl and R. INC: EDITION - III

The Third edition of the International Negotiation Championship, the sixth flagship event hosted by the Infinity Lexathon Society, took place on March 8th and 9th, 2025, on a virtual platform. Organized by a society founded by dedicated law enthusiasts with a mission to elevate ADR mechanisms and negotiation practices, the event brought together participants from leading institutions across the globe. This edition witnessed representations from various premier law colleges across India and Sri Lanka, further adding to the diversity and competitiveness of the championship. The competition was judged by distinguished professionals in the field, offering participants an invaluable opportunity to demonstrate their negotiation skills on an international stage.

The title of Winners (Negotiating Pair) was awarded to Narmadha Ragunath and Aishwarya G from IFIM Law School. The Runners-up (Negotiating Pair) were Kashvi Goswami and Sakshi Choudhary from Gujarat National Law University, Gandhinagar.

PAST TRAINING SESSIONS

As part of its commitment to nurturing future mediators, the Infinity Lexathon Society (ILS) organised a series of training sessions for participants of the 1st International Mediation Championship. These sessions aimed to equip participants with practical skills, strategic insights, and a deeper understanding of mediation and negotiation.

The first session, held on October 4th, 2024, was conducted by Mr. John Lag on "The Art of Purposeful Mediation." It provided participants with essential mediation strategies and included an interactive Q&A.

The second session, on March 7th, 2025, featured a Masterclass by Mr. Tom Valenti, a Chicago-based conflict resolution specialist. Drawing on his global experience, he shared insights into civil, commercial, and workplace mediation while highlighting the importance of training future mediators.

The third session, scheduled for May 30th, 2025, will be a Complimentary Masterclass by Ms. Kathlene Ruane Leedy, Trainer CIA-Arb and International Mediator, focusing on the intricacies of negotiation and advanced dispute resolution strategies.

Together, these sessions provide participants with invaluable guidance and preparation to excel in the championship.

ASSESSORS FOR OUR CHAMPIONSHIPS

We at Infiniity Lexathon Society, take special pride in the Assessors who we invite for the Competition. We make it a point to inculcate a mixed bag of Assessors from around the world to cater to our participants from various corners of the world.

Adding on to this, International and Cross Border ADR can be learnt and appreciated from Assessors who have dedicated their lives to this career and can impart that knowledge onto our participants.

We have had the pleasure of hosting multiple luminaries from around the world, including- Thomas P Valenti, John J Lag, Kathleen Luane Reedy, Patrick William Mcphillammy III, Godslove Nkeomachi Offer, Diluki Silva, Natascha Tunkel, Pascal Comvalius and many more.

For this edition, we intend to bring on board multiple assessors from not just India but throughout the world who specialise in International ADR to invoke hands on experience for the participants of ILS.

His expertise spans Civil, Commercial, Employment, Family, IP, Probate, Real Estate, and International Disputes, with recognition as an ODR specialist. Practicing in the U.S. and internationally, he brings a global perspective on ADR.

He will conduct a training session on ADR mechanisms, offering participants practical insights and international best practices in dispute resolution.

ABOUT IMC : 3

In International Mediation Championship (“IMC”), the cash prize is the compensation for all the late all nighters pulled, all the resources invested in to prepare for the competition and many more other expenditures undertaken. But the “Internships” are for forwarding your career prospects in the most glorious way possible. We out of all people understand how hard it is for many of us to make it into top tier firms; hence we at ILS want to help, foster and nurture your legal career blossom into a beautiful flower.

Apart from this, the judging panels throughout the rounds shall be filled with assessors from the side of our collaborators and also other mediators and arbitrators specialising in the field which the proposition is relating to.

And lastly, the points picked up from the training session organised by us shall play a key role in your road to success in this championship. So better be a part of it!
