

Bloodborne Pathogens Awareness

1. What are bloodborne pathogens?

- a) Airborne bacteria
- b) Microorganisms in blood and bodily fluids that can cause disease
- c) Chemical toxins in the environment
- d) Foodborne illnesses

2. Which of the following is a common bloodborne pathogen?

- a) Influenza virus
- b) Hepatitis B (HBV)
- c) Common cold virus
- d) Pollen allergies

3. How are bloodborne pathogens primarily transmitted?

- a) Through casual contact like shaking hands
- b) Through contact with infected blood or bodily fluids
- c) Through contaminated air
- d) Through contaminated food

4. What is the most effective way to prevent Hepatitis B infection?

- a) Frequent handwashing
- b) Vaccination
- c) Wearing a dust mask
- d) Avoiding public transportation

5. What does PPE stand for?

- a) Personal Protection Exercise
- b) Patient Protection Emergency
- c) Personal Protective Equipment
- d) Primary Prevention Effort

6. What is the recommended practice for handling all blood and bodily fluids?

- a) Treat them as safe unless you know the person is infected
- b) Treat them as potentially infectious
- c) Treat them based on the person's appearance
- d) Treat them only in hospital settings

7. What should you do immediately after a potential exposure to blood or bodily fluids?

- a) Ignore it if you feel fine
- b) Wash the exposed area thoroughly with soap and water
- c) Apply a bandage and continue your activities
- d) Wait until the end of the day to report it

8. Which of the following is a mode of transmission for bloodborne pathogens?

- a) Sharing food
- b) Sharing needles
- c) Sharing books
- d) Sharing air

9. What is the importance of being aware of bloodborne pathogens?

- a) To increase fear and anxiety
- b) To reduce the risk of infection and protect yourself and others
- c) To avoid social interactions
- d) To create unnecessary medical expenses

10. Where can you find reliable information about bloodborne pathogens?

- a) Social media rumors
- b) Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC)
- c) Unverified online forums
- d) Word of mouth