

November Knockout Tournament

Rules of Conduct

Purpose

To ensure a safe, fair, and enjoyable environment for all players, coaches, volunteers, and spectators, the following rules will apply throughout the November Knockout tournament, hosted by ReachEquilibria at Coppell High School.

Facility Rules

- All participants and spectators must follow Coppell High School's campus rules at all times.
- No outside food or drinks are permitted except for water. Concessions will be available on-site.
- Tobacco, alcohol, vaping, and illegal substances are strictly prohibited.
- Keep the facility clean. Dispose of trash in designated bins.

Player Conduct

- Players must demonstrate sportsmanship at all times:
 - No fighting or disrespect toward referees, staff, or other players.
 - Disputes must be handled respectfully and only through referees.
- Uniform and footwear must be appropriate for indoor play. Uniforms will NOT be provided and players must bring or create their own. Created jerseys can be shirts with numbers painted or taped on. Proper footwear must be worn when playing.
- Jewelry and accessories that may cause injury must be removed prior to play.

Tournament Rules & Enforcement

- Referees' decisions are final. Arguing calls may result in technical fouls or ejection.
- Participants must follow all tournament rules, schedules, and instructions from staff/volunteers.
- Zero tolerance for violence (physical or verbal). Any act of aggression will result in immediate removal.
- Teams/players causing intentional damage to property or equipment are financially responsible.

Safety & Health

- Only authorized personnel (teams, volunteers, referees) may be on the court during games.
- Injuries must be reported immediately to event staff or referees.
- If a player feels unwell, they must remove themselves from play until cleared.

Consequences of Violations

- Violation of these rules may result in:
 - Warnings or penalties.
 - Player/team disqualification.
 - Removal from the facility without refund.

Acknowledgment

By participating in or attending the November Knockout tournament, all teams and spectators agree to abide by these Rules of Conduct, in addition to Coppell High School's general policies. Failure to comply may result in removal from the event.
