lives. It was sad when that great ship went down.

2. They were not far from the shore, about a thousand miles or more.
When the rich folks refused to associate with the poor.
So they sent them down below where they'd be the first to go.
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Chorus

3. Oh, the boat was 'bout to sink, and the sides about to burst,
When the captain shouted out, "All women and children first!"
It was a night none would forget, even millionaires got wet,,
It was sad when the great ship went down.

Chorus

4. Oh, they swung the lifeboats out o'er the deep and raging sea,
When the ship's band struck up with "Nearer My God to Thee."
Little children wept and cried, as the waves swept o'er the side,
It was sad when the great ship went down.

Chorus

5. Oh, the captain stood on deck with a tear drop in his eye,
As the last boat went out, he waved them all goodbye,
He knew he made a slip, so he went out with the ship,
It was sad when that great ship went down.

Chorus

6. Oh, the moral of the story, as you can plainly see,
Is have a life preserver when you go out to sea,
Mother Nature's hand made sure that ship would never land,
It was sad when that great ship went down
