

Modern Slavery Act Statement

Donavalli Consulting Limited

This statement is made pursuant to Section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 (the “Act”) and sets out the steps we, Donavalli Consulting Limited (DCL), have taken (and are taking) to ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in our supply chain or in any part of our business.

Our Business

We operate in IT/OT consulting, delivering control system services to customers in the UK and internationally.

Our Commitment

- We comply with all applicable laws, including the Modern Slavery Act 2015.
- We expect the same high standards from our employees, contractors, and suppliers.
- We are committed to acting transparently and with integrity in all our business relationships.

Our Supply Chains

We work with a range of suppliers and contractors. We seek to ensure they share our values and comply with our zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and human trafficking.

Due Diligence and Risk Management

- We assess risks in our supply chain and take appropriate steps where higher risks are identified.
- We include modern slavery and ethical compliance requirements in supplier contracts where relevant.
- We provide channels for concerns to be raised confidentially.

Training and Awareness

We raise awareness among our staff of the risks of modern slavery and the importance of reporting concerns.

Approval

This statement has been approved by the Board of Directors of Donavalli Consulting Limited and reviewed annually.

Authorized by:Date: 09/06/2025

Rajesh Donavalli
Managing Director
Donavalli Consulting Limited