GAME NOTES

BACK FROM THE PASTURE: The Mustangs return from a two game road trip with a 1-1 split with the Macon Bacon and Lexington County Blowfish. Game one saw Mustang pitchers Aidan Kelly and Trever Barnes combine for a 1-hit gem in a 7-4 win in Macon. The two combined for 13 K's while Enrique Wood launched his first home run as a Mustang. Game two marked Jake Bazala's last start for Martinsville. The righty threw a season-high seven innings allowing just two runs in his farewell performance. However, the Stang's offense could not back up their starter, tallying only two hits in a 5-1 loss. Martinsville returns home with two games remaining in the 2025 season.

STANG GANG SENDOFF: Martinsville's Andrew Schmid, Enrique Wood, and Jake Bazala will suit up for their final home game on Friday (8/01) vs High Point - Thomasville. All three have donned the Mustang blue and gold for the past two seasons, and they are all out of college eligibility following this summer. Wood earned a CPL All-Star nomination in 2024, slinging .288/.497/.307 while starting 41 games at shortstop. Wood graduated from North Carolina A&T and aims to take his baseball career to the professional level. Bazala was Martinsville's opening day starter in 2025 after a successful '24 campaign that saw the Mercyhurst righty finish 3-2 in eight appearances with a K/BB ratio of 28/8. Bazala has plans to attend a tryout for the Savannah Bananas, and aspires to use his Intellegice Studies degree after this summer. Schmid was donned the "Martinsville Team Captain" in 2024 when the Monmouth graduate took it upon himself to "direct clubhouse morale." The super-utilty man will play his 65th game for the Mustangs, which will mark the final home game of his baseball career. Schmid plans to return to Monmouth in the fall to finish his MBA and work as a Grad Assistant for the Hawks' Athletic Department.

SCOUTING FROM THE STABLE: Martinsville will face HPT righty Brodie Shaw for the third time this year. The Morehead State product's previous two appearances against the Mustangs both came in relief. The righthander has thrown four total innings against the Stang Gang, in which he allowed just one unearned run, two hits, three walks, and collected three strikeouts. In the two previous games featuring Shaw, Martinsville outscored HPT 17-5.

OLD FACES, NEW PLACES: Former Mustang, and new Atlanta Braves draft pick Hayden Friese (24-25) is set to make his professional debut on Friday for the Augusta Green Jackets (Single-A). The Western Carolina Catamount left Martinsville in mid-July when he was selected in the 20th round (607 overall) in the MLB Draft. Friese slashed .313/.473/.398 in 24 games with the Mustangs in 2025, and was named a starter of the CPL West All-Star team. Friese will play first base in his debut when the Green Jackets take on the Carolina Mudcats at 7 p.m.

CHECKING IN ON OLD FRIENDS

TATSUNORI NEGISHI '24

Negishi, a native of Tokyo, Japan, came to Martinsville after a successful graduate season at North Carolina A&T where he slashed .374/.479/.591 in 52 games for the Aggies. Negishi was invited to the HBCU Swingman Classic in Phoenix, AZ, and was coached by MLB Hall-of-famer Ken Griffey Jr. Negishi was selected to the 2024 CPL All-Star team, one of five Mustangs nominated. Since, Negishi was selected by his hometown Tokyo Yakult Swallows with the first pick in the 2024 developmental draft.

ALEC GONZALEZ '25

In his first season in Martinsville, Gonzalez was electric from the jump. The infielder slashed .304/.458/.391 in his 13 games with the Mustangs. Gonzalez was selected to the 2025 CPL All-Star team, however was forced to drop out when he signed with the Schaumburg Boomers of the Frontier League, where he plays now. Gonzalez joined Martinsville after rooming with longtime Mustangs' Johnboy Rittenhouse and Cooper Morgan at the University of the Cumberlands.

ERIC ELLIOTT '25

Before coming to Martinsville, Elliott was named the 2025 SWAC Pitcher of the Year after a standout season with Jackson State. Elliott appeared 12 times, starting eight, posting a 2.45 ERA with a 3-0 record with two saves. The southpaw was dominant in his first appearance with the Mustangs, throwing three perfect innings with three strikeouts. Elliott left the team for the 2025 HBCU Swingman Classic, and he will pitch in Truist Park, home of the Atlanta Braves, on July 11.

HAYDEN FRIESE '24-25

Friese first came to Martinsville in 2024 after his sophomore year at Western Carolina. Friese returned in 2025 after posting career-best numbers at WCU in hits (76), RBI (47), HR (9), and batting average (.335). After the junior-year jump, Friese was voted to the 2025 CPL All-Star Team, his first selection in two years with Martinsville. In the midst of the season, Friese was selected in the 20th round of the MLB Draft by the Atlanta Braves. He has been assigned to the Augusta Greenjackets (Single-A).

MUSTANGS 2025 NEW UNIFORMS

HOME - BLUE PINSTRIPES

Designed in collaboration with 3n2 sports, Martinsville's new home uniforms bring in the new while honoring the old. Martinsville will continue to wear it's traditional blue and gold combo at home, but now in pinstripes for the first time in franchise history. The look is complemented with matching blue/gold pinstripe pants and a solid blue cap with the main horseshoe logo. This uniform set will serve as Martinsville's main home look.

HOME ALT - BLUE ASTRO

Designed in collaboration with 3n2 Sports, this look honors the four years of Martinsville's affiliation with the Houston Astros, from 1999–2003. The then-named "Martinsville Astros" played at Hooker Field in the Appalachian League (Rookie). The Astros were the third and final team to host a minor league affiliate in Martinsville, following the Philadelphia Phillies (1988–1998) and the Philadelphia A's (1945–1949).

AWAY - GRAY PINSTRIPES

Designed in collaboration with 3n2 Sports, this look brings back the traditional gray road jersey. Similar to the home set, this is the first time that a Martinsville road uniform will feature pinstripes. This look will be complemented by matching pinstripe pants and a gray cap. Martinsville will use this as its main road look. The "Road Pins" and three other new uniforms all feature side patches on the sleeves. Pinstripe jerseys use the CPL and Mustang logos, and the Astro uses the USA Flag.

AWAY ALT - GRAY ASTRO

Designed in collaboration with 3n2 Sports, this look honors the four years of Martinsville's affiliation with the Houston Astros, from 1999–2003, when the "Martinsville Astros" played at Hooker Field in the Appalachian League (Rookie). This look will serve as the alternate road uniform for the Mustangs, and it will be worn with solid gray pants and a solid gray cap. This uniform set (Blue Astro) is the first time the Mustangs pay homage to a former MiLB affiliate (Phillies, 2022).

ALT - SALUTE TO SERVICE

Designed in collaboration with 3n2 Sports, this look is the lone uniform that will be carried over from the 2024 season. Last year, the Mustangs wore this jersey during the team's historic 13-game winning streak from late June to July. The streak became the longest in franchise history, and catapulted the Mustangs from 3rd to 1st in the West Division. The digital-camo jersey has become a Martinsville staple.
