They should be helpful and show good manners. They should be respectful and have fun! Gymnasts should not be rude, disrespectful or bully others. In return, coaches will be supportive. Coaches will encourage equality, diversity and respect by treating everyone fairly regardless of gender, race, disability, religion or culture, as described in the Equality Act (2010).

- Gymnasts should talk to their coach if they are feeling unwell or have injured themselves to ensure the appropriate steps are taken to manage this.

Meon Valley Gymnastics has Public Liability Insurance. This covers the club if there was an accident that may happen as a result of negligence by the club.

Meon Valley Gymnastics cannot be held responsible if a child injures themselves whilst taking part in gymnastics. Whilst saying this, be aware that:

1. Coaches will take steps to prevent any accidents in many ways.
2. Activities within the club will be within the abilities of the children as well as coaches.
3. The classes are run by a British Gymnastics qualified coach (UKCC level 2 award in WAG).
4. A qualified first aider will be present at all sessions and will provide basic first aid where necessary.

Please inform us before the class if a child has a new or existing injury that we need to be aware of.

Parents/Guardians must be aware of all of the above and take full responsibility regarding accidental injury, for which the club cannot be held liable.

You acknowledge that your child's participation in gymnastics with Meon Valley Gymnastics may be physically demanding. You are aware that the risk of injury may be significant, including the potential for serious injury. Serious injury with low level gymnastics is very rare, but as with any type of physical activity, there is still a risk. Meon Valley Gymnastics will create a safe environment for children by:

- Ensuring that the gymnast's welfare is paramount, their feelings and views are heard and respected, and are responded to where necessary. All coaches will be vigilant and supportive. The Children Act (1989) supports and encourages this.

- Following and referring to the 2023 act - After-school clubs, community activities, and tuition Safeguarding guidance for providers:

- Remaining calm and supportive if a disclosure is made and taking appropriate steps to follow this through.

- Risk assessing the gymnastics venue at the start of each school year; yet risk assessing dynamically each week to ensure the equipment and environment conform to high standards of safety for the gymnasts at all times. Gymnasts are encouraged to inform the coach if they notice anything unsafe, which will then be rectified by the coach.

- Communicating with parents and guardians, as well as teachers and other school staff, where necessary, to establish positive relationships and keep children safe. Working together with other agencies to build strong bonds and support the needs of children. This helps us to learn, collaborate and challenge if necessary, and also allows for a bigger picture to be made on a child's needs.

- Gathering relevant information on each gymnast (i.e medical notes and contact number) to ensure risk assessments can be accurate, emergency contact information is stored etc. All data will be held securely on a private personal device, following terms of the Data Protection Act (2018) and destroyed when you leave the club. Any information stored in the first aid or incident logs will be kept for 3 years. Any child protection information, where necessary, will be kept until the child is 25.

- Being informed of any medical conditions or behavioural needs before sessions begin to allow for any necessary adaptations to be made.

- Recruiting safely - Providing an enhanced DBS check and children's barred list for the coaches working with the children, ensuring they are a good match and have relevant experience for the role. Insuring the coach and checking qualifications in gymnastics, right to work, references, safeguarding certification and valid ID. Staff will regularly be monitored and reviewed. Any accusations against will be handled correctly via the LADO and informing the police and DBS services where appropriate.

- First aid training the coach and providing a well maintained paediatric first aid kit, to give basic first aid where necessary.

- Having a phone on site in case of emergencies.

- Being aware of relevant fire procedures and ensuring the children know where to go in the event of a fire.

- Having had a safeguarding course/refresher course undertaken by the coach every 3 years. Ensuring the Designated Safeguarding Lead has relevant training that is updated when necessary and follows updates in legislation. Ensuring all coaches have an understanding of how to identify safeguarding concerns and what steps to take. Staff will also have an understanding of how to identify signs of radicalisation and extremism.

- Ensuring that coaching stays within the remits of the qualification held (UKCC Level 2 or UKCC Level 1 qualifications for coaches, Gymnastics Helper qualification for assistant helpers).

- Maintaining a professional yet fun environment for the children, making sure the gymnasts are prepared physically and mentally for their skills.

- Coaching with clear instructions for the children to learn safely.

- Ensuring consent is received from the child and their guardian before images are taken and used on business social media platforms.

- If lone coaching takes place, ensuring that the coach is never alone with a singular child, if so they should always be in view of another adult. The ratio of 1:16 will always be maintained, with other adults present in adjacent rooms when necessary.

- Ensuring clothing is adequate for gymnastics activities, allowing for comfortable movement throughout the session and is safe.

- Keeping an accident book and incident book well maintained throughout the sessions, which is then logged securely on a private laptop. Any incidents, no matter how small, will be reported in the log and appropriate action taken. Assistant coaches and helpers are encouraged to report any concerns to Alice. Assistant coaches will have undertaken relevant safeguarding courses.
- Not letting children leave the session until their parent/guardian has picked them up, unless permission has been granted beforehand.
- Reporting any allegations, suspicions or concerns regarding a child to the relevant authorities (i.e Police, Social Services) or the safeguarding lead at school when necessary. This will also be reported in the incident book and then transferred to a secure laptop. LADO (local authority designated officers) can also be contacted.
- Liaising with any relevant authorities, where necessary, to ensure child safety. Calling 999 if the concern implies the child is in danger.
- Complying with Data Protection legislation to keep information kept confidential, unless there is a lawful and necessary reason for disclosure.
- Aiming to ensure that parents/carers feel able to raise queries or concerns without fear of judgement.
- Sending children to use the bathroom in pairs rather than alone when necessary.
- Ensuring that manual support is only provided to the children when necessary and in compliance with the individual's relevant British Gymnastics qualification.
- Because of the nature of gymnastics, accidental/non-intentional contact can sometimes arise – these instances should not occur often and they generally come as a result of a gymnast falling. These incidents should be acknowledged via an apology to the gymnast, and a written log being made of the incident. Parents/guardians should also be informed of this upon collection.
- Please contact the school or the coach (07759224439) if you are delayed collecting your child and inform us of what you would like us to do.
- The lead coach will never leave a child alone.

If you have concerns regarding the coaches at Meon Valley Gymnastics; if appropriate, please discuss with us to determine a plan of action and resolve the concern. Please contact a LADO (Local Authority Designated Officer) if you have concerns regarding one of the coaches at Meon Valley Gymnastics that can not be resolved by us or the school's designated safeguarding lead.
