After breakfast and early morning activities proceed for full-day sightseeing tours. Sightseeing tour of Kathmandu City, Swayambhunath Stupa, Bouddhanath Stupa. Evening you can visit Thamel market or Shopping at your own. Overnight stay at hotel in Kathmandu.

Kathmandu City: The heart of Nepal, Kathmandu City is a vibrant blend of ancient traditions and modern life. Its bustling streets are lined with intricately designed temples, markets, and historical sites. The Durbar Square is a UNESCO World Heritage site, showcasing the rich cultural heritage of the city with its palaces, courtyards, and temples.

Swayambhunath Stupa: Often referred to as the "Monkey Temple," Swayambhunath is an ancient stupa perched atop a hill. The gleaming white dome is adorned with the watchful eyes of Buddha, symbolizing enlightenment and wisdom. From here, one can enjoy panoramic views of the city and its surroundings.

Bouddhanath Stupa: As one of the largest stupas in the world, Bouddhnath is a hub of Tibetan Buddhism in Nepal. The towering white dome is adorned with colorful prayer flags, and the area is surrounded by monasteries and shops selling religious artifacts. Pilgrims and tourists alike circumambulate the stupa, spinning prayer wheels and offering their devotion.

Drive back to hotel and after breakfast proceed for half-day sightseeing tour of Devi's Falls, Boating at Phewa lake, International Mountain Museum. Overnight stay at Hotel in Pokhara.

Sarangkot: Sarangkot is a picturesque hilltop village located near Pokhara, Nepal. Renowned for its spectacular sunrise views, it offers panoramic vistas of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri mountain ranges. Visitors often flock here for paragliding adventures and to witness the ethereal beauty of the Himalayan peaks.

Devis Falls: Devis Falls, also known as "Patale Chhango," is a mesmerizing waterfall located southwest of Pokhara. It is formed by the Pardi Khola stream, which disappears underground into a mysterious cave. The falls offer a captivating sight, especially during the monsoon season when the waters are at their most forceful.

Gupteshwor Cave: Adjacent to Devis Falls, Gupteshwor Cave is a mystical underground cave system. It houses a sacred Shiva lingam and is illuminated by dim lights, creating an enchanting atmosphere. The cave's narrow passages lead to a hidden vantage point offering a unique view of the roaring waterfall.

Phewa Lake: Phewa Lake in Pokhara, Nepal, is a beautiful freshwater lake known for its tranquil waters and stunning reflections of the Annapurna mountains. The lake features the Tal Barahi Temple on an island and is popular for boating and lakeside walks, making it a serene retreat for visitors.

International Mountain Museum: The International Mountain Museum in Pokhara, Nepal, offers an insightful exploration of the world's mountainous regions, particularly focusing on the Himalayas. It features exhibits on the history, culture, geology, and biodiversity of the mountains, as well as the lifestyles of mountain communities. The museum also highlights the achievements of mountaineers and the impact of climate change on these regions.
