

Quest Sample

Genre: MMORPG

Quest Name: Glowing Up

Acquisition:

➤ Player interacts with Biologist Ravenna

Biologist Ravenna: “The flora and fauna here are unlike anything we have back home. And the creatures, too! The aquatic life in particular is intriguing—I think I saw a frog emitting some kind of bright, bioluminescent light the other evening. Could you gather some samples for me? A few tadpoles would suffice. I’d like to study the properties of this unusual species, maybe discover what causes it to glow like that. They could even name the frog after me! ... On further reflection, I’m not sure I’d like that.”

Player:

01. “Sure, sounds easy enough.”

Biologist Ravenna: “Perfect! You do have a fishing net, don’t you? If not, I’m sure we have some lying around.”

[Quest accepted] [Ends dialogue]

02. “I don’t have time for that.”

Biologist Ravenna: “Hmph. A pity; I would have made it worth your time, you know.” [Quest rejected] [Ends dialogue]

IF Player rejected quest:

➤ Player interacts with Biologist Ravenna

Biologist Ravenna: “You’re back. Have you reconsidered my request?”

Player:

03. “Sure, sounds easy enough.”

Biologist Ravenna: “Perfect! You do have a fishing net, don’t you? If not, I’m sure we have some lying around.”

[Quest accepted] [Ends dialogue]

04. “I’m still not interested.”

Biologist Ravenna: “Stop wasting my time, then.” [Quest rejected] [Ends dialogue]

Quest Log Entry:

Biologist Ravenna wants you to catch 5 luminous tadpoles in the Boglands. You will need a fishing net to complete this quest.

Mid-quest:

➤ Player interacts with Biologist Ravenna

Biologist Ravenna: “Have you collected those samples, [Player Name]? I’d retrieve them myself, but this seems like a job more suited to your ... particular talents.”

Player:

01. “I’m working on it.”

Biologist Ravenna: “I have my own work to be doing, so, if that’s everything ... ?” [Ends dialogue]

02. “I don’t have them yet.”

Biologist Ravenna: “Well, what are you waiting for?” [Ends dialogue]

Turn-in:

➤ Player interacts with Biologist Ravenna

Biologist Ravenna: “Oh, you have the tadpoles! How do I know? Your pack has a very distinct glow about it. So, the light is visible even through several layers of material ... fascinating! Quick, quick! Hand them over. I’ve been itching for something to sink my teeth into. No, I’m not going to eat them. You know what I mean!” [Ends dialogue]

Reward:

Scrungles the Tadpole

This pet will eventually grow into a bioluminescent frog.
