Beaver illumination (www.beaverillumination.fr) is a french hybrid game creation studio located in the Territoire de Belfort. The goal of the studio is to offer the general public real immersive and interactive experiences that combine breathless stories and innovative games at home that are accessible to all. In our games, where the audiovisual atmosphere plays an essential role, you will play characters with rich and complex stories. We invite you to dive into these narrative universes and live unique adventures.

Thus, our objective is to create, great interactive experiences that can be called ARG (Alternate Reality Game) by exploring all the possibilities to offer players richer and more immersive entertainment.

Our first game, entitled « Anaëlle the Witch of the Lion Territory », is a hybrid adventure game. It combines the use of a 3D application for PC computers and and Android mobile devices with physical documents (notebook, letter...). The action of the game takes place in an alternative fantasy-style version of the Territoire de Belfort in France.

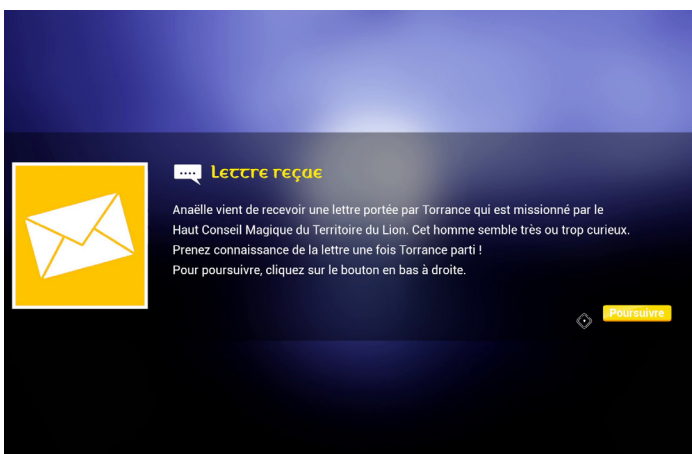

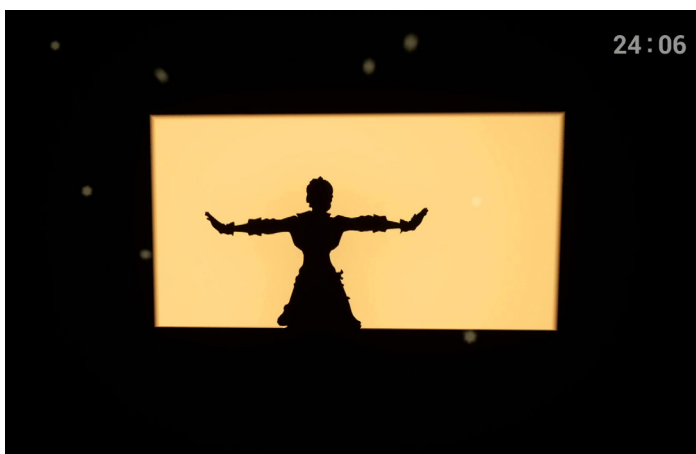

For this hybrid adventure game accessible to all (from 12 years old), we do not use the internet and other tools because the universe of the game did not call for it. All these tools will be used for our second creation. PC application of the game « Anaëlle the Witch of the Lion Territory » which benefits from spatial audio to increase the player's immersion in certain sequences, is playable with the keyboard and mouse but also with a controller. The average duration of the game « Anaëlle Sorcière du Territoire du Lion » is about 6 hours.

« Anaëlle the Witch of the Lion Territory » is a narrative and musical adventure divided in several sequences. The game alternates between adventure/exploration phases and cinematic sequences. In order to travel throughout the adventure in the Magic Territory of the Lion, the player will have to use the physical documents (letter, notebook...) received with the order. In particular, the notebook of the witch Anaëlle which contains notes and illustrations that are essential to progress in the game.

You can visit the studio's website and download the demo of the game at the following address : www.beaverillumination.fr

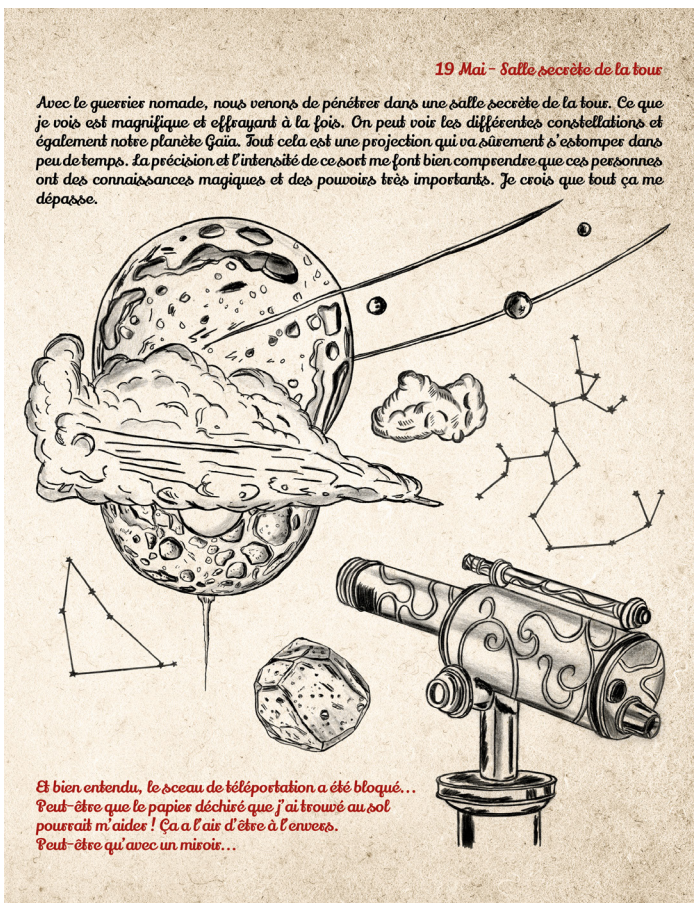

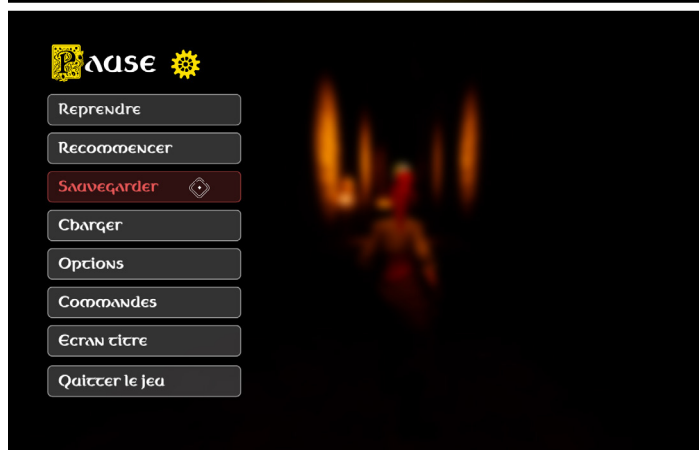

The demo does not require any documents. We offer demos for download so that future players can ensure that the 3D application will work properly on their computers and Android mobile devices before placing their orders.

The minimum hardware requirements are as follows :
