Dear Neil Rideout,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to provide a reference for Neil Rideout, a distinguished organization that has recently completed a highly successful project involving the establishment of a drone training and exploration company in Nova Scotia, Canada.

Over the past 2 years, Neil Rideout has demonstrated outstanding expertise and dedication in building a comprehensive drone ecosystem, which includes the following key components:

1. Drone Races: Neil has successfully organized multiple drone races, attracting enthusiasts and professionals from across the region. These events have not only provided thrilling experiences for participants and spectators but have also significantly boosted the local drone community's engagement and interest.
2. Training Facilities: Neil has established state-of-the-art training facilities that cater to both novice and experienced drone operators. These facilities offer a range of courses, from basic drone operation and safety to advanced piloting techniques and regulatory compliance. The training programs have been instrumental in enhancing the skills and knowledge of numerous individuals in Nova Scotia.
3. Personnel Development: Neil has played a crucial role in building a skilled workforce in the drone industry. By recruiting, training, and supporting personnel, the company has created numerous job opportunities and contributed to the economic growth of the region. His commitment to personnel development is evident in the high level of expertise and professionalism displayed by their team.

Throughout our collaboration, Neil has maintained a high standard of professionalism, innovation, and community engagement. His ability to deliver on their promises and exceed expectations has been truly remarkable. His efforts have not only established a thriving drone training and exploration industry in Nova Scotia but have also positioned the region as a hub for drone innovation and excellence.

I highly recommend Neil Rideout for any organization or individual seeking top-tier drone training, exploration services, and community-building initiatives. His passion for the drone industry, coupled with their strategic vision and execution, makes them a valuable partner for any project.

Please feel free to contact me if you require any further information or details about our experience with Neil.

Best regards,

David Mullins
