A huge thank you to the Kijlstra's for helping remove the slime on our turf area. It has made a huge difference!

Star of the Week

Millie Ferguson - 3/4B

Millie consistently shows our school values. She is a caring friend who looks out for others. Millie has a great sense of humour and a positive outlook which makes her great to be around. Thank you for bringing your positivity to our learning community, Millie. You are a STAR!

Achievement Awards

Foundation	Hannah Carter: For smashing her learning goals. This week Hannah smashed her maths goal, reciting the doubles facts of the numbers 1-6 confidently. Hannah has been trying really hard to remember them all and through persistence and hard work she has done it! Well done Hannah, you are a learning legend.
1/2A	Isla Jenkins: For the fantastic effort she has made to improve her reading and spelling. Isla you have done an incredible job to improve your reading and spelling so much in such a short time. All your hard work is paying off and now you can reap the rewards! You have set such a positive example to your peers and you should be very proud of yourself. Keep it up legend!
1/2B	Benji Cavill: For being a skillful learner when using Venn diagrams in reading comprehension. He is able to clearly compare and contrast two different books, looking at the similarities and differences. Keep up the great work, Benji!
3/4A	Olenka Sawicki: For her brilliant Information Report topic questions and research. You have listened carefully to ensure that you are finding out new and exciting things to captivate your reader. I cannot wait to read your finished product!
3/4B	Hannah Dean: For your amazing writing; your stories take us on unexpected journeys with suspense and intrigue. Your characters emerge through descriptive and relevant details to support the plot. Keep using your imagination, Hannah! We enjoy the journeys you take us on.
5/6A	Indi Hoornweg: For showing determination and persistence in her understanding of Fractions this week. Indi had quite a few misconceptions at first, however throughout the week, she has listened carefully to lessons, practised the concepts being taught and continued to give everything her best attitude. Her persistence paid off when her assessment result showed an improvement of two years! Wow! Way to go Indi!
5/6B	Marli Sabec: Well done on your persistence and problem solving when things are tricky. You have used these skills to your advantage this week while trying to understand fractions, with lots of success! You have a fantastic can-do attitude that helps you during all your classwork. Keep up the great work, Marli!
Art	Felicity Humphries: Felicity is to be congratulated on her wonderful work ethic. She always puts her best foot forward and produces wonderful results as a consequence! Well done Felicity.
