

“Changed by Encountering Jesus: The Sinful Woman”

Luke 7:36-50

October 12, 2025 (Bible Class)

NOTES

Introduction: In what ways were people changed by encountering Jesus? Did they change? And if so, how did they change? While we do not encounter Jesus the same way they did, how does Jesus affect you today?

I. Setting the Scene (v. 36-40)

- a. Jesus was _____ and _____
- b. The woman was a _____
- c. Jesus knew Simon's _____

II. Jesus' response to _____ (v. 44-47)

- a. Simon _____
- b. Simon _____
- c. Simon _____

III. Jesus' response to the _____ (v. 48-50)

- a. The woman _____
- b. The woman _____
- c. The woman _____
- d. The woman _____

IV. Who am I?

- a. Our _____ matters
- b. Our _____ matters
 - i. _____
 - ii. _____
 - iii. _____
 - iv. _____

Conclusion: Our awareness of our spiritual condition is tied to our actions; our affection for Jesus fueled by our faith and gratitude. Do we love Jesus much, or do we love Jesus little?

“Changed by Encountering Jesus: The Adulterous Woman”

John 8:2-11

October 12, 2025 (AM)

NOTES

Introduction: In what ways were people changed by encountering Jesus? Did they change? And if so, how did they change? While we do not encounter Jesus the same way they did, how does Jesus affect you today?

V. Setting the scene (v. 2-7a)

- a. “Set _____ in the midst” (v. 3)
- b. “Caught ... in the very _____” (v. 4)
- c. “This they said, _____ Him” (v. 6)

VI. Jesus’ response to the _____ (v. 7b-9)

- a. Deuteronomy 17:6-7, 19:15-19; Isaiah 11:3-4
- b. Two common responses:
 - i. _____
 - ii. _____

VII. Jesus’ response to the _____ (v. 10-11)

- a. Jesus never _____
- b. Two common responses:
 - i. _____
 - ii. _____
- c. I John 2:1-2

Who are we like? When we encounter one who has sinned, are we bending down to grab a stone or bending down to help them up?

“Changed by Encountering Jesus: A Demon-Possessed Man Healed”

Mark 5:1-20; Luke 8:26-39

October 12, 2025 (PM)

NOTES

Introduction: In what ways were people changed by encountering Jesus? Did they change? And if so, how did they change? While we do not encounter Jesus the same way they did, how does Jesus affect you today?

VIII. The _____

a. Mark 5:1-13

b. “Jesus gave them _____” (v. 13)

IX. The _____

a. Mark 5:14-17

b. Jesus gives the people _____ (v. 18a)

c. Romans 1:18, 21-26, 28, 32

X. The _____

a. Mark 5:18-20

b. Jesus gives the man an _____ (v. 19)

c. Can we _____?

Conclusion: We have two choices before us. Jesus has come to rescue us from evil. We can either tell Him to go away, or we can tell Him that we want to follow Him and tell others what He has done for us.

“Changed by Encountering Jesus: The Paralytic Man”

Mark 2:1-12; Matthew 9:1-8; Luke 5:17-26

October 13, 2025

NOTES

Introduction: In what ways were people changed by encountering Jesus? Did they change? And if so, how did they change? While we do not encounter Jesus the same way they did, how does Jesus affect you today?

XI. Do we _____?

a. Mark 2:5

XII. What do our _____?

a. Psalm 103:11-12

b. Ephesians 6:18

c. What else can we pray for?

i. _____

ii. _____

iii. _____

iv. _____

v. _____

vi. _____

vii. _____

viii. _____

XIII. What _____?

a. Mark 2:11-12

b. Isaiah 53:5

XIV. Jesus _____

a. Mark 2:5

b. I John 1:7-9

Conclusion: We are all like the paralyzed man – with pressing needs only Jesus can fulfill and provide. And more importantly, a primary need that only Jesus can supply!

“Changed by Encountering Jesus: A Blind Man Receives Sight”

John 9:1-41

October 14, 2025

NOTES

Introduction: In what ways were people changed by encountering Jesus? Did they change? And if so, how did they change? While we do not encounter Jesus the same way they did, how does Jesus affect you today?

I. Setting the Scene

- a. The man was _____ (v. 1)
- b. The man was a _____ (v. 8)
- c. To Jesus' disciples, the man was a _____ (v. 2)
- d. Jesus says the _____ (v. 3b)
- e. The man was _____ (v. 6-7)

II. The _____ of _____

- a. _____ → _____
- b. John 9:7
- c. I John 5:3; Revelation 22:14

III. A _____ to pay for _____

- a. John 9:15-17, 24-34
- b. Matthew 10:32-33
- c. Question: _____?

IV. A _____ of _____

- a. John 9:8-12, 13-17, 33, 35-38
- b. The man moves from _____ to _____
- c. Question: _____?

Conclusion: We must have total dependence on Jesus. It is hard to break free from spiritual blindness. But Jesus, as the light, brings sight to the blind.

“Changed by Encountering Jesus: The Rich Young Ruler”

Matthew 19:16-22; Mark 10:17-22; Luke 18:18-23

October 15, 2025

NOTES

Introduction: In what ways were people changed by encountering Jesus? Did they change? And if so, how did they change? While we do not encounter Jesus the same way they did, how does Jesus affect you today?

V. Setting the Scene: Facts about the rich young ruler

- a. _____
- b. _____
- c. _____
- d. _____
- e. _____

VI. Three questions to consider

- a. What _____?
 - i. Luke 10:25-29
 - ii. Seeing our _____ leads us to _____

- b. What _____?
 - i. Matthew 19:20
 - ii. _____?
- c. What _____?
 - i. Jesus isn't just asking _____. He's asking for _____.
 - ii. Luke 10:27

Conclusion: Almost persuaded. That was the rich young ruler. Jesus told him precisely what he needed to do to take the next step in his spiritual journey, but he went away sad. He wasn't willing to take that step. Are you?
