

Storytelling

to Kindle Imagination and Instil Wisdom

Workshop suitable for teachers, parents and all storytellers

Rescheduled Date - 26th & 27th April 2025

Stories, for all time & in every culture, have always made meaning, deepened human understanding, & expanded insight into the human condition. Our time, more than ever, needs the recovery of the hearth & heart that can weave us together & offer a sanctuary, insight & humour through the power of storytelling.

This workshop will explore:

- becoming a great storyteller; discovering stories, developing courage & confidence.
- a wide a range of stories suitable for the young child, the primary years, teenagers & adults, according to developmental need.
- many types of story-myth, wondertales, nature, pedagogical, biography & creating your own.
 - the craft of storytelling: setting, pacing, voice and gesture
- telling & reading stories * stories as part of an integrated curriculum
