MUSICAL EXPERIENCES

Wedding DJ Producer

Your wedding is a story.
I compose its soundtrack.

A Complete Musical Experience

Every celebration tells a story.

A wedding is never simply a gathering.
It is a succession of emotions, glances, and moments that unfold naturally throughout the day.

Music is the invisible thread connecting it all.

My approach goes beyond simply playing tracks.
It is about designing an experience.

Each wedding becomes a film.

The couple become the leading characters.
The venue becomes the setting.
And I compose the soundtrack that carries each emotion.

Everything relies on rhythm, progression, and perfect timing.

From the first welcome to the final dance, atmosphere, energy and music evolve together to create a seamless and natural narrative.

Subtle when needed.

Present when it matters most.

Always in harmony with the people, the setting and the moment.

Because the most memorable events are not only heard.

They are felt.

Music, designed to be felt.

The Role of Music

Music does not simply fill a space.
It guides a moment.

Every wedding has its own sonic identity.

I design a bespoke musical direction shaped by:

the couple's energy,
the character of the venue,
and the natural rhythm of the day.

The event is carefully prepared.
Nothing is rigid.
Everything comes alive in real time.

The setlist constantly evolves.

It blends original tracks everyone instantly recognise,
carefully sourced rare versions, and exclusive edits created for specific signature moments.

Timing. Energy. Emotion. Flow.

The right song at the wrong moment remains a good song.

The right song at the right moment becomes a memory.

As guests arrive at the ceremony,
an acoustic piano version of Dancing Queen instantly reassures.
It feels familiar,
helping guests transition from travel into the emotion of the moment.

Later that evening, the very same song, reimagined as a disco remix, becomes a collective spark.

Eyes meet. Smiles appear.
Hesitation fades.

Generations connect and the dancefloor naturally comes alive.

This invisible balance is where unforgettable moments begin.

Who I am

I'm Guillaume,
though behind the decks, you know me as Liam Solo.

My relationship with music has always been guided by a simple belief:
every event carries its own energy, rhythm and language.

My role is to listen to it before playing the first note.

Over the years, I have performed at private parties, fashion shows, musical residencies and live events where timing, coordination and energy had to function flawlessly, without a second chance.

This operational precision now shapes my approach to weddings.

As a certified DJ Producer through the Mobile DJ Blueprint program, I create exclusive edits, mashups and original productions integrated into my sets or specially designed for signature moments such as the first dance or dancefloor opening, ensuring every celebration carries a unique, elegant and evolving sound identity.

My sets are designed as journeys:
organic, evolving, and always shaped around the people and the moment.

Discreet in presence.

Attentive to detail.

Driven by emotion rather than performance.

In order to preserve the level of attention and quality offered to each couple,
I intentionally limit my calendar to around fifteen weddings per year.

The Rhythm of a Wedding

My role is also to free you from any musical or technical concerns, allowing you to fully live every moment.

Every wedding has its own energy.
Music doesn't create it. It reveals what is already there.

Guest Arrival

Soft, welcoming sounds help guests slow down, release the tension of the day and gently step into the story you are creating.

Ceremony

Each musical choice becomes an emotional landmark.
Entrances, silences, glances and the couple's exit are guided with precision and simplicity.

Cocktail

Conversations flow, generations meet and energy rises organically.

A refined blend of music gradually transforms the cocktail from a gathering into the beginning of the celebration.

Naturally.
Effortlessly.

Dinner

Music turns into a subtle presence.
It supports conversations, enhances emotions and allows guests to fully enjoy being together.
The cake arrival may be enhanced by cold sparks, amplifying the collective emotion.

First Dance

A song chosen, or created, with and for the couple.
A suspended moment, sometimes accompanied by a light dancing-on-the-clouds effect, where time seems to slow and every gaze gathers around you.

Transition

An almost invisible shift.

The light changes, anticipation builds, and suddenly the evening moves into celebration, without anyone noticing exactly when it happened.

Every moment connects.
Nothing feels forced.
Everything flows.

The Art of the Party

A great party never begins with loud volume.

It begins with listening.

Listening to the guests.

Reading the room.

Understanding the true rhythm of the celebration.

A dancefloor is not launched.

It is built.

Gradually.

Organically.

Never forced, never rushed.

Every transition is carefully guided so that each generation, culture and personality naturally finds its place.

Familiar songs meet unexpected moments.

Elegance meets energy.

Emotion turns into celebration.

Music is not there to impress.

It creates connection.

Until that rare moment when the dance floor remains full, carried by a spontaneous collective energy.

Perhaps at that moment, you will no longer observe the party.

You will simply be living it.

Not a performance.

A shared experience.

Music, designed to be felt.

And sometimes, I offer the couple one final timeless moment.

One last dance, away from the guests' eyes.

The room has emptied. The energy softens.

Just a moment to reconnect, to breathe, and realise that everything has just been lived.

Music begins long before the first dance.

The Journey

Every event starts long before the first track plays.

My role is to design a seamless musical journey, refined, intentional and entirely tailored, allowing you to fully experience your wedding with complete peace of mind.

Each project is carefully studied to ensure genuine artistic and human alignment.

01 — Event Portrait

A dedicated meeting, without any sales pressure, designed to understand who you are, your aesthetic and the atmosphere you wish to create for your guests

02 — Musical Direction

Within 48 hours, you receive a personalized musical vision outlining artistic intentions, energy flow and the overall direction imagined for your event.

03 — Creative Preparation

Unlimited communication, a dedicated WhatsApp line and close coordination with planners and venues ensure a smooth and stress-free preparation.

Every detail is anticipated to ensure fluidity, coherence and comfort on the wedding day.

04 — On the Wedding Day

I guide the musical experience in real time.

Simple. Seamless. Tailor-made.

Elegant Production

Behind every effortless moment lies invisible preparation.

My complete technical setup is included in every performance to ensure a coherent, aesthetic and perfectly controlled experience.

A refined white DJ setup designed to be seamlessly integrated into the environment.

Professional sound system adapted for receptions up to 300 guests, delivering clarity and listening comfort throughout the day.

Battery-powered systems for ceremonies and cocktail areas, allowing discreet installation without technical constraints for the venue.

100% wireless lighting, respectful of spaces and fully photo and video friendly.

For selected key moments, signature effects may enhance the experience: cold sparks, dancing-on-the-clouds effect, subtle lighting design created to elevate emotion without overwhelming it.

Because technology should never be noticed. It should simply allow everything to happen effortlessly.

Working in Harmony

Every successful wedding relies on seamless collaboration between the teams who imagine it and those who bring it to life.

I remain personally involved in every event, ensuring artistic consistency and seamless coordination from musical design through to live performance.

Accustomed to high-end event environments, I naturally integrate with teams and real on-site logistics.

I see my role as a musical production partner, working closely with wedding planners, venues and creative teams to ensure music integrates seamlessly into the overall experience.

Music is never imposed.

It naturally follows the rhythm of the day, the aesthetic of the venue and the work of every professional involved.

My mission is to contribute to a beautiful celebration while respecting each collaborator, allowing everyone to operate with confidence and ease.

Collaborative mindset, discretion and precision serving one shared goal: allowing couples to fully live their wedding day.

Kind Words

“Attentive and highly professional, he adapted both sound and lighting with precision to every key moment of the wedding. The couple’s first dance, accompanied by a soundtrack specially created for them, was truly unforgettable. Emotion and joy guaranteed.”

— Alizée / Alizevents — Destination Wedding Planner

“His professionalism, attention to detail and elegant yet discreet approach make him an exceptionally reliable partner. The couples I support have been consistently delighted with the quality of his performance. Liam is a DJ I recommend without hesitation.”

— Valentine Charbonnier — Wedding Planner

“Not a single guest stayed off the dance floor all evening! A true moment of connection, joy and celebration. He has a remarkable ability to read the room, adapt to the energy of the moment and shape the music with great sensitivity.”

— Beatriz / La Brésilienne — Bridal Gown Designer

“I met Guillaume during an event at Château de Fonscolombe. His modern, carefully designed setup immediately stood out, along with a thoughtful and highly structured approach to installation and lighting.”

— Renaud Delcuze — Wedding Photographer

Behind the Music

Liam Solo.

I chose this name simply because my French first name is not always easy to pronounce internationally.

And despite appearances, it wasn't meant to be a Star Wars reference.

Although... when guests ask, I often notice a sparkle in their eyes.

So I usually say yes, with a smile.

My musical universe was shaped by film scores.

Ennio Morricone.

John Williams.

Hans Zimmer.

I had the privilege of seeing them conduct live.

Watching orchestras breathe and move as one living sound, revealed to me how powerful music becomes when emotion turns tangible.

This culture of live performance and musical direction now influences every set I perform.

Music has been part of my life since childhood.

Guitar, trombone and piano.

Classical orchestras, jazz ensemble, big band, pop orchestra.

An eclectic journey that still defines how I design every event today, beginning with a blank page and composing a fully bespoke experience.

Then came concerts. Many of them.

Probably ten Elton John shows.

The first in Las Vegas was so extraordinary that we decided to return only a few months later.

Except... I got the date wrong.

Sold out. Curtain closed.

Since then, I always double-check my tickets.

Every performance taught me what truly matters: structure, tempo, emotion and lived experience.

That is what I aim to create today.

Not simply a playlist.

A story unfolding in real time.

And if you're looking for me during the evening...

You'll find me behind the decks, with a Coca-Cola Zero within reach.

Beyond Weddings

Curated Musical Experiences

While weddings remain at the heart of my work, my musical direction extends to a wider universe of refined celebrations and destinations.

Private Celebrations

From intimate villa dinners to birthdays, garden parties or yacht gatherings, each celebration is approached with sensitivity and intention. Music accompanies the rhythm of the evening, evolving naturally from elegant ambiance to vibrant moments of shared energy. Effortless. Personal. Memorable.

Corporate & Brand Events

Music shapes perception. For brand launches, corporate gatherings and private receptions, I design musical environments that support connection, conversation and celebration while respecting each brand's identity. An atmosphere aligned with purpose. An experience guests remember.

Hotels • Beach Clubs • Restaurants

A venue's atmosphere begins long before the dancefloor. Through carefully curated selections and a discreet presence, I create sound identities that enhance the character of each place, from sunset lounges to refined dinner atmospheres and vibrant evenings. A sound that feels naturally at home.

I prioritise projects where experience and aesthetics matter more than performance or spectacle.

Where elegance meets energy on the dancefloor

Music, designed to be felt.

Each celebration begins with a meeting
