

LET'S GO GHANA!

Ancestral Homeland &
Investment Tour 2023

BE PREPARED FOR GHANA

#Asebupav

NO TRAVEL IS RISK- FREE, BE PREPARED

Plan ahead and make sure you:

- Inform your bank about your travel
- Understand what your insurance will cover
- Have a valid passport for at least 6 months
- Have a valid visa
- The only immunization you are required by Ghana to have is for Yellow Fever

GET IN TOUCH

www.asebupav.com
info@asebupav.com

Africa is the new frontier

Meet your tour operator

Rachel Okello is a UK based Solicitor specialising in Immigration law. She also organises homeland tour of Ghana & Uganda

Crime:

Most visits to Ghana are trouble free, but criminal activity does occur.

Local customs:

You should show respect for traditional values and morals. Dress modestly in public.

Wearing military clothing including camouflage is prohibited

More tips

Malaria – The decision to take malaria medications is totally up to you.

Bring your prescription medicines with you

Don't drink water from the tap ever.

Don't drink water from the tap ever.

Ghanaian workers appreciate your tips very much

Cash, Traveler's Checks and Foreign Exchange – Bring only cash or traveler's checks to exchange into Ghana cedis.

Ghana suffers from occasional power outages

Ghana uses 220V power, bring your adaptor plug

ENJOY YOUR STAY IN GHANA - AKWABA