

PROFILE OF ISAIAH Q. ZIWAY

Isaiah Q. Ziway

Administrative & Financial Officer
Universal Farmers Association (UFA)

Isaiah Q. Ziway brings a dynamic blend of financial expertise, administrative precision, and a strong commitment to community development to his role as Administrative and Financial Officer at the Universal Farmers Association (UFA).

With a solid academic foundation in Business Administration from the University of Liberia and a Diploma in Accounting from Booker Washington Institute (BWI), Isaiah offers UFA a structured approach to financial management, budget planning, and operational oversight. His experience working with development-focused organizations across Liberia has sharpened his ability to implement efficient financial systems, track expenditures, and support transparency and accountability in every aspect of the organization's operations.

At UFA, Isaiah plays a critical role in ensuring that financial and administrative processes align with the organization's mission to empower local farmers and strengthen rural livelihoods. He brings a meticulous eye for detail, a data-driven mindset, and a passion for supporting sustainable agricultural initiatives.

Beyond the numbers, Isaiah is a natural communicator and team player. His background in education and community service, ranging from teaching in the classroom to volunteering with the YMCA in Liberia, gives him a unique ability to connect with stakeholders from diverse backgrounds, including local farmers, partners, and donors.

Through his work at UFA, Isaiah is not just managing resources, he's helping build a resilient and self-reliant agricultural sector in Liberia, one well-organized step at a time

Isaiah Q. Ziway is a dedicated and proactive professional currently pursuing a Bachelor of Business Administration at the University of Liberia (UL). With a strong foundation in administration and finance, Isaiah has served in various roles that combine expertise in financial management with hands-on teaching experience.

Born in August 2, 1998, in Zwedru, Grand Gedeh County, Liberia, Isaiah identifies as a Christian and holds Liberian nationality. His career includes significant contributions as an Administrative and Financial Officer at both the Universal Farmer Association (UFA) in Schiefflin Town, Margibi County, and SHAPE – Liberia in Ganta, Nimba County. These roles have honed his financial analysis and operational management skills.

Additionally, Isaiah has enriched the lives of students as a Classroom Teacher at the Helen Teah Christian Institute (HTCI) in Paynesville, Montserrado County. His commitment to community service is evident through his volunteer work with the YMCA in Kakata, Margibi County, and service as a Juror with the 13th Judicial Circuit Court in Kakata, Margibi County.

Isaiah's educational background includes a Diploma in Accounting from Booker Washington Institute (BWI) and a Teaching "C" Certificate from the Kakata Rural Teaching Training Institute (KRTTI). He has also completed short-term training in Mental Health with Mercy Corps and has proficiency in Computer Applications including MS Word, MS Excel, MS Powerpoint and MS publisher.

Isaiah Q. Ziway exemplifies a blend of academic pursuit and practical experience in both the educational and fina