The final round match is won by:

- a player who wins 2 games;
- the player with the higher total score of 2 games;
- the player with a higher score in one game;
- if no winner can be determined according to the above criteria, 1 throw is thrown - the player who knocks down more pins wins.

Bonus points are awarded - HDC (awarded in addition to the result of each game):

- For LBF players or players from other federations, after evaluating the average of the last few seasons (see Table no. 1) and the level of the participant's game.
- 24 points are awarded to those who have never been members of federations.
- 6 points are given to seniors (>60 years old), women, young people (<14 years old).

For participants who may be awarded HDC based on multiple criteria, HDC is cumulative only by 2 criteries.

Minimum HDC for seniors (>60 years old), women, young people (<14 years old) – 8 points.

The maximum HDC is 36 points.

The organizers reserve the right to adjust the participant's HDC if the participant's declared level of play (average) obviously does not correspond to the participant's real level of play.

Table nr. 1:

Average	HDC
