

ABOUT ME

I am Roberto Randazzo, also known as Erreanderre.

I'm a Music Producer and Musician with a deep passion for Media and Creativity.

I'm curious and energetic, yet I tend to be reserved in my thoughts. I have a love for travelling and discovering new cultures.

Currently based in Hamburg.

I've also lived in Berlin, Vienna, Salzburg, Milano, Messina.

My creative journey began at age 6, when I started creating songs, comics, and stories.

If you're looking for a creative mind who's organized logic, analytic and a team player, then it sounds like we've found a match.

I am a skilled guitarist and session musician, available for tours, studio sessions, and live performances.

My ability to quickly grasp and play any piece of music ensures that I can jump in and deliver on the first try.

Playing: Guitar, Bass, Ukulele, Piano & Synth.

In addition to my live work, I also offer professional services as a producer, specialising in production, composition, arrangement, and mixing. Whether you need a versatile guitarist or a creative producer,

I'm here to support your artists and bring the magic sound needed.
