THE NEW LOVE LANGUAGES™
& LOVE BY DESIGN

MEDIA KIT

Hi, I'm Joan!

AUTHOR, HUMAN DESIGN LOVE GATES EXPERT, SPEAKER, COACH

I'm Joan Nwosu - author of The New Love Languages: Unlock Lasting Love through 10 Human Design Love Gates, Human Design Love Gates expert, speaker, and host of the Love by Design™ Podcast.

After navigating marriage, heartbreak, divorce, and more fresh starts than I can count, I learned what no dating app or communication script ever teaches: real love isn't found — it's attracted by design.

For years, I've helped high-achieving, emotionally intelligent women (and the partners who love them) break free from toxic cycles, stop overgiving for crumbs, and attract aligned, conscious love without performing, shrinking, or abandoning themselves.

I'm the creator of The New Love Languages™ and Love by Design™ frameworks — powerful, practical systems that blend Human Design, Love Gates, mindset, and spiritual alignment to decode how you're actually wired to love and be loved.

Here's the paradigm shift: Each of the 10 Love Gates can express in shadow (driven by fear and conditioning) or in gift (rooted in authentic alignment). When you shift from shadow to gift, you stop attracting patterns and start magnetizing partnership. You become the place love lands.

Today, I speak, write, and teach from lived experience and deep research, showing people how to stop performing for love and start embodying their frequency—so the right love finds them.

If your audience is ready to move beyond surface dating tips and discover their true love language at the energetic level, I'd love to collaborate.

xo, Joan

LOVE BY DESIGN

Helping high-achieving women shift from doing to receiving in love and life

THE MOVEMENT

WITH JOAN NWOSU

The New Love Languages™ and Love by Design™ are more than frameworks. They're a paradigm shift in how we understand love, compatibility, and commitment.

For decades, we've tried to fix our love lives with communication tips, attachment styles, and the 5 Love Languages. Helpful, but incomplete. They treat the symptoms, not the source.

My work goes deeper, mapping 10 Human Design Love Gates – your energetic love codes that reveal how you naturally give, receive, and experience love. These aren't surface behaviors. They're your soul's frequency.

I help high-achieving women and couples stop dating by default – swiping, hoping, and trying to “perform” love and start loving by design:

- with clarity about their energetic wiring
- with standards that match their self-worth
- with frequency that attracts devotion, not distraction

Through my book, podcast, personalized Love Gates reports, and upcoming workbooks for singles and couples, I'm rewriting the script on love in this new era—proving that when you get YOU right, the right person is magnetized toward you.

You don't have to chase love.

You become the place love lands.

Hey, I'm Joan!

For 25 years, I was the woman who looked like she had it all together —
Director at Sun Life, thriving IT consultant for Canada's top banks, ambitious and unstoppable.

Except in love.

Behind the titles and promotions, I was living a pattern so many high-achieving women know too well: successful at work, but exhausted and unfulfilled in relationships. Same types, same heartbreaks, same stories on repeat.

Determined to break the cycle, I dove into personal development, became a certified Life & Relationship Coach, and tried all the mainstream dating “rules.” It worked on the surface, but something was missing.

Then I discovered Human Design — and everything clicked. I finally saw why my patterns kept repeating and how my conditioning and “good girl” programming were shaping who I attracted and how I showed up. That insight became Love By Design™, my framework for moving beyond chemistry into true conscious alignment.

As I worked with women around the world, I realized we didn't just need better strategies — we needed a new language for love. That's how The New Love Languages™ and the Human Design Love Gates were born: 10 energetic expressions that reveal how you're designed to love and be loved. They now anchor my book, reports, and work with singles and couples who are ready to “pop the hood” on their relationship patterns.

Today, I teach powerful women to stop performing for love and start attracting aligned partnership — by design, not by default. My mission is simple:

Break the pattern, not your heart.

Help people understand their true love language at the energetic level — and change how humanity does love, one chart at a time.

I loved the clarity and confidence with which Kalanne spoke and it was clear that people listening if they didn't know her, would want to find out more about her. She spoke in a very strong manner drawing references from her Life which was great. Very interesting interview.

I recently met Joan who I found to be by far, the best interviewer I've ever had. She was very involved in the process, had done her homework, was engaging, asking questions she knows her audience would love to know, and went deeper than most interviewers ever have and I fell in love with her. Such a great conversation! You're a fantastic host.
