POWER MINERS

The background of the page is a vibrant illustration of a LEGO Power Miners scene. On the left, a large, circular, metallic porthole with a green and yellow diagonal hazard pattern is set into a dark, rocky wall. To the right, a blue LEGO miner character with a headlamp and a pickaxe stands on a rocky ledge, holding a glowing green crystal. Below him, a small green and black vehicle with a figure inside is positioned near a glowing orange flower-like crystal. In the upper right, a large black and green mining vehicle with a drill bit is visible. The bottom right corner features a grey, rocky monster head with glowing yellow eyes. The entire scene is set in a dark, cavernous environment with glowing green crystals and a yellow lava-like flow on the ground.

Mysterious tremors are threatening the planet. A team of heroic scientists, engineers and diggers have been sent to find the source of the tremors by digging down to depths no human has ever reached. Far below the surface, the Power Miners discover more mysteries – crystals buried in the earth and rock monsters that eat the crystals... What connection do they have to the tremors? Can the Power Miners find out in time to save the earth?

www.lego.com/powerminers

Doc

- Power Miners leader and determined to discover source of tremors.
- He's seen the world and lots of adventure.

Brains

- Although he's anxious to save the world from the tremors, he's fascinated by the rock creatures.
- He'd love to capture some alive, so he could learn all about them.

Duke

- A veteran miner, Duke has dug for gold and diamonds around the globe.
- He's survived all mining dangers, but he's never seen anything like the rock monsters!

Rex

- A top engineer, he worked on the giant geo-thermal power station in the Earth's core.
- He's designed most of the Power Miners' vehicles and constantly battles Firox who sabotages his machines.

Firox

- Sneaky and curious, Firox loves to play tricks.
- Steals Power Miners' tools and messes up their machines.
- Fastest monster, almost impossible to catch.

Meltrox

- Angry, destructive and full of rage!
- Always the first to fight, even when there are crystals nearby.

Sulfurix

- Clever and sly – appears where you least expect him!
- Makes tunnels by melting through rock and can eat crystals before the Power Miners can get there.

Glaciator

- Nasty and evil - feared by the other rock monsters.
- Gets Boulderax or Meltrox to fight for him while he eats crystals.
- If the Power Miners are in trouble, Glaciator is behind it somehow!

Boulderax

- Strong, slow, and dumb as a rock - will fight a Thunder Driller for fun!
- He forgets to take crystals sometimes when he's bashing Power Miners' equipment!
