New sets from LEGO® 1975.

A short guide to the joys of LEGO.

There are nearly 100 different LEGO sets. This leaflet can only show you the most important ones and all the new ones for 1975. Even so, it will help you to get some idea of the wide range of sets designed for boys and girls of all ages. Because that is the most remarkable thing about LEGO — it gives a lasting pleasure for year after year. It is simple enough for a toddler to enjoy, yet versatile enough to challenge the skills of a 10 year old.

There's nothing quite so satisfying as building. And with LEGO you can make things just the way you want them.

Basic Sets are always new

There are 7 sizes of Basic Sets to choose from. 7 boxes full of colourful bricks, windows, doors and wheels for you to build endless wonderful models. You don't need instructions. LEGO is so simple you just build what you want. Today a giraffe. Tomorrow an airplane. Or would you prefer a garage? It's up to you.

2 £2.10, 3 £3.10, 4 £3.95, 5 £4.75, 6 £6.15,
7 £7.75, 8 £10.45,

And there's a big new Super Set in a sturdy wooden storage box for £15.85 too.

NEW LEGO Nursery Bricks

◁ Nursery Bricks are big and chunky.

An ideal introduction to constructive play for toddlers from about 18 months.

They think they are just playing.

You know they are learning about shape and size and colour and building.

516 £1.10, 517 £1.45, 518 £1.45,
519 £1.95, 520 £2.45, 521 £3.75.

LEGO is a new toy every day.

LEGO's little family moves in.

The figures from the LEGO family have jointed arms, heads that turn, hands that hold bricks. They pop up in Easy Model Sets flying 'planes or pushing prams. They sit at table in the Dolls Furniture sets. Or you can buy them on their own.

Playing with LEGO is even more fun when the Family join in the game.
