High Tech Building with Life-Like Functions!

You know how much fun it is to build with the LEGO SYSTEM™ Town, Castle, Pirate, and Space sets. Imagine yourself building models that not only look real, but work like the real thing, too! Build working functions into your creations with springs, pistons, beams and more! These starter sets feature realistic models that are fun to build, display, and play with. Not only can you make the models move like the real thing, you can see how they actually work! Perfect for beginner LEGO® TECHNIC builders.
