Q7) a) The reasons responsible for the disintegration of the Soviet Union are as follows:-

- INTERNAL WEAKNESSES - The internal weaknesses of the Soviet political and economic institutions and its failure to address the problems of people, allow greater freedom and recognize the aspirations of the people were equally responsible for its disintegration. People were alienated by the administration and did not identify with the system and the leaders.

- ECONOMIC STAGNATION - The Soviet economy stagnated because the Soviet Union used much of its resources in maintaining the nuclear arsenal and the development of its satellite states in Europe and Central Asian areas. It led to the economic burden that the system could not cope with.
Also, Soviet Union was engaged in the "Arms race" with the US and managed the US from time to time. All this was responsible for its "economic stagnation". As a result, Soviet's food imports went on rising.
- RISE OF NATIONALISM - The rise of Nationalism in Russia, Ukraine, Belarus, Georgia and the Baltic Republics of Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and other were the most immediate cause of the disintegration of Soviet Union. The desire for sovereignty among people shocked its 'PEAK'.

Some of the major steps taken by the Chinese leadership for the growth of Chinese Economy and to break its stagnation are as follows - in 1972. The Chinese ~~had~~ ^{had} ~~been~~ ^{been} ~~pushed~~ ^{know} ~~to~~ ^{had} ~~to~~ ^{had} proposed 4 modernizations namely Agriculture, Industry, Science and Technology and military in 1973. Then leader Deng Xiaoping introduced 'Open Door policy' in 1978 for further investments in labour and technology from abroad for increased productivity.

ECONOMIC REFORMS (1978) - In 1978, the Chinese leadership decided to reform it's economy. It established relations with the US.

- SPECIAL ECONOMIC ZONES (SEZs) - SEZs are areas within the country where the economic laws are different from that within the other areas of the country. Mainly, in order to encourage the MNCs and foreign investments, the ~~tariff~~ are usually lowered. The establishment of SEZs has made China one of the most preferred destination of FDI anywhere in the world. It's ~~had~~ ^{had} huge stock of foreign companies ~~had~~ ^{had} allowed it to make investments in different parts of the world.

- PRIVATIZATION OF AGRICULTURE AND INDUSTRY - The Chinese leadership did not go for 'shock therapy'. It opened their economy step by step. The privatization of Agriculture in 1982 was followed

By privatization of industry in 1998. The state continues to play a major role in the economy. This step gave a boost to Agriculture and Industrial sector and in turn the several industries people increased their savings and also productivity.

Therefore, all this efforts by Chinese leadership has resulted in the creation of China as the world largest economy in 2017 (according to PPP US of measure). Today, it is one of the fastest growing economy and is the second largest only after US.

- 29) a) Pandit Deendayal Upadhyay was a famous philosopher, sociologist, economist and politician. The philosophy presented by him is known as "Integral Humanism". Important features of this ideology are as follows:

 - In this ideology, Humans remain at the centre of all

- development activities. It is an integrated indigenous socio-economic model which aims at improving the quality of life of humans while balancing the needs of human body and mind. It promotes sustainable development of resources as that they freedom can be replenished. It promotes social, economic democracy and
- It is suited for a country like India, as it seeks to promote diversity. Three important principles of integral humanism are as follows :-
 - i) Autonomy of Society
 - ii) Supremacy of Karma
 - iii) Consideration of Whole, not part (Inclusiveness)
- Integral Humanism advocates "indianization of democracy" particularly economic democracy. Swadeshi and desordivalization are the basis of economic democracy. Freedayal's philosophy is based on the principle of "Athaayam". It means the absence and primacy of Authorised to destruction and delegation of 'Prasna' which is so central to integral Humanism.

Pandit Deendayal also opposed both western capitalist individualism and Marxist socialism because they consider the needs of only body and mind while ignoring the spiritual development. Therefore, he based his philosophy on integral consciousness, where man should not be called 'Chitt', he envisions a classless, casteless, and conflict free social system.

FIRST FIVE YEAR PLAN

REMOVE POVERTY	AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT	LAND REFORMS	IRRIGATION AND DAMS
----------------	--------------------------	--------------	---------------------

(Based on Soviet Model)

The First Five Year Plan (FYP) was launched in 1951 by the Planning Commission. The important features of first FYP are as follows:-

- The agriculture was ~~most~~ ^{the} ~~best~~ ^{by} position and also due to British rule. Therefore, the first five year plan mainly focused on agricultural sector. It aimed at reducing poverty in our country. The economist, K.N. Raj and others were involved in formulating the plan.
- K.N. Raj recommended that India should hasten slowly as a fast rate of growth might lead to disaster and affect the development process and economy. Important irrigation projects and big dam projects were initiated. These included Beaska Nagal Dam, Hirakud, others. Government lay special emphasis on agricultural productivity. Subsidies were provided.
- It was found that agriculture stagnated in India and remained backward mainly due to unequal land concentration. Therefore,

Land reforms to redistribute land among poor were started. Efforts were also taken to encourage people to make savings. But due to already meager, this could not be achieved. This plan lasted from 1951-56.

This plan was widely accepted because of its novelty. Different sections of society examined it and had different expectations related to the first five year plan, thus, started the long-term process of planning in India.

19. Terrorism is the systematic use of brutal violence that targets civilians deliberately and indiscriminately. It is the systematic use of violence that creates an atmosphere of fear in society.

Objectives of Terrorism include -

- Politics - Religious purpose - Terrorism may be used for several reasons but mainly for political and religious purpose. Some terrorists inclined towards particular religion may want to harm people of other religion. It may also be guided by political aims and goals like to control a particular region or state. Eg. Taliban in Afghanistan.

- Usually, civilian targets are chosen to terrorise the public. The main objective behind that is to use the fear of public as a weapon against government and to change the political context or situation that they may not like. It includes violent act that are unlawful.

Two classic cases of terrorism are -

- Hijacking planes after their sabotage. Eg. Al Qaeda terrorists hijacked the 4 planes of US and led to the "9/11" attack.
- planting bombs in public places, cafes, markets, hotels and other crowded places because these are the major points of large destruction.
Eg. Taj Hotel Attack (2008)

(20) It's true that Development mostly causes degradation of environment. Two environmental movements with preference to stress are -

- i) MOVEMENT AGAINST MINERAL INDUSTRY - Mineral industry leads to digging the earth, exploiting resources, destroying environment, causing pollution, displacement of people, water pollution, forest clearance among others.
- ii) Much opposition to this industry comes from all the groups and communities. In Philippines, people protested against the ~~the~~ Mineral-based Multi National Company, ~~the~~ Western Mining Corporation (WMC) Australia. In it's own country WMC has faced opposition due to protecting indigenous rights of people and anti-nuclear sentiment.
- iii) ANTI DAM MOVEMENT - ~~the movement is being built~~ There is anti-dam movement. getting opposing etc. It is mainly a ~~pro~~-sakura movement. Eg- In 1980's

Anti-Dam movement in Australia to save Franklin river and the Yorta Yorta
 In India, Narmada-Bhakra Andolan is the famous example of a pro-environment movement in eastern India.
 These movements are basically to protect the environment from degradation.

Q1) India and Pakistan's relations are a major concern for India and is an important aspect of India's foreign policy.

Demarcation line	Border Disputes
in Sir Creek

- Both the countries involved in a dispute over Kashmir in 1947-48 after independence. Pakistan claimed that Kashmir belonged to it. The 1947-48 war resulted in the Kashmir division into Pakistan Occupied Kashmir (POK) as 'Azad Kashmir' by Pakistan, and Jammu and Kashmir separated by LOC (line of control).
- The countries are in dispute over the control of Silchar and other strategic areas when India conducted Nuclear tests in 1998 in Pakistan, Rajasthan, Pakistan sponsored by conducting the same in Chagai hills.
- India claimed Pakistan for low-key violence in Kashmir and helping the Militants with assassinations, money, support, etc. Pakistan in turn blamed India for treacherous in Sindh and Balochistan.
- Both countries signed India-Pakistan Treaty in 1960.

mediated by World Bank. This treaty has successfully worked even after many conflicts. Also India and Pakistan are not in agreement regarding the ~~several demands~~ in line of Siachen in the form of know-how. Therefore, solutions are thought to be ^{tensed} but improving gradually.

22) The given statement, "Globalisation is the outcome of developed technology" is perfectly true because of the following reasons-

- Technology and Advanced communication has made the world interconnected and interdependent. The Invention of Telegraph, telephone, radio, television has made planetary interdependent. These inventions have increased the connectivity between people. People can contact within seconds. And therefore the way is cleared for Globalisation.
- Globalisation relates to the flow of ideas, capital, commodities, people between different parts of world. Technology has increased these flows more than ever. It is through Internet that more than 7 billion people are connected and are naturally ~~a~~ interdependent.

- With more ease and efficiency and new methods of increasing the pace of globalisation is going on. The Satellite communication has revolutionized the Technological arena.

Eg - With fast jet planes one can reach within a few hours from one destination to other, long transporability of goods and services, outsourcing, call centre services etc.

23) Few steps taken by India towards to remove poverty are:-

- (Casibai Hatao Andolan (1971)) She introduced the slogan in order to remove poverty and improve the lives of poor people through subsidies, allowances, food distribution (PDS), etc.

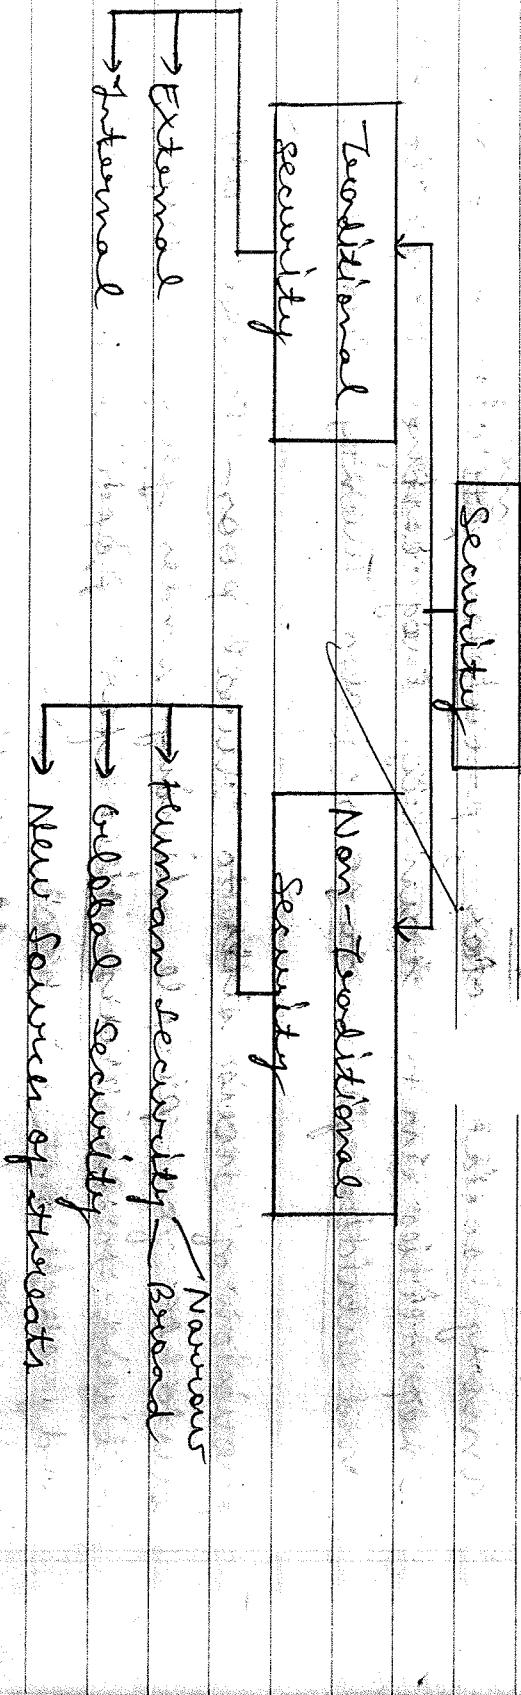

- Land Reform measures - she undertook several land reform measures like land ceiling, consolidation among others to reduce the land concentration and distribute among poor landholders. As a result, poverty will be reduced.
- Reduce income inequalities (redistribution of income and wealth) - Indira Gandhi's government under Ten-point programme introduced in 1969 that nationalisation of banks, insurance among social sector, ~~progressive~~ stress to reduce income inequalities in the country. Progressive tax policies were issued and subsidies given to poor. (also, Twenty-Point Programme)
- provision of house sites to rural poor - several places were made available for people living under Jangali - informal clusters to deliver them house sites for proper healthcare and livelihood and shelter.
- Overall, all these initiatives were pro-poor and even her party advocated 'socialism' as its goal.
