

Terms & Conditions – Legal Protection

Official Protection

The Combat Ju-Jutsu Federation of Asia (ACJFF) is the sole recognized governing body of Combat Ju-Jutsu in Asia. All of its official activities, competitions, events, rules, regulations, educational materials, logos, emblems, and other intellectual creations are legally protected.

Scope of Protection

The legal protection applies not only to the digital content published on this website, but also to all official printed documents, competition rules, technical systems, event materials, and federation property used in real life.

Unauthorized Use

No person, club, organization, or third party may use the name, logo, rules, competition formats, or official documents of the Combat Ju-Jutsu Federation without prior written authorization. Any unauthorized imitation or misuse in practice, events, or promotion is strictly prohibited.

Legal Consequences

Any unauthorized use or misrepresentation of the federation's rights and property – whether online or in real life – will be treated as a legal violation. Offenders will be subject to civil and criminal penalties, including damages, injunctions, and potential suspension or exclusion from sporting activities.

All rights reserved. The name, logo, rules, and competition system of the Asian Combat Ju-Jutsu Federation (ACJFF) are legally protected. Unauthorized use in digital or real-life form is prohibited and may result in legal action.
