CMH acquired the Acquired Shares pursuant to the Merger for investment purposes. CMH intends to review and evaluate its investment in the Common Shares on an ongoing basis and may, depending upon such evaluation of the business and prospects of Antioquia, market conditions or such other considerations as it may deem relevant, determine to increase, decrease, or dispose of its holdings of Common Shares through market transactions, private agreements or otherwise. To the extent that any of the intentions described herein change, CMH will make any such necessary filings with the Canadian securities regulators as may be mandated by applicable securities laws.

The Merger (and indirect acquisition of the Acquired Shares) was completed in reliance on the “private agreement exemption” contained in Section 4.2 of National Instrument 62-104 — Take-Over Bids and Issuer Bids, on the basis that [(i) the purchase of the Common Shares was not be made from more than five persons in the aggregate, (ii) the offer to purchase was not be made generally to all holders of Common Shares, and (iii) there is a reasonable basis for determining that the value of the consideration paid for any of the securities is not greater than 115% of the value of the securities.
