

Being a Boomer Ain't Bad

Music and Lyrics by Stan French

Being a boomer ain't bad
Can't remember enough to be sad
Each day of the week is the same to me now.
So being a boomer ain't bad.

Being a boomer ain't bad.
I don't have to be up on each fad.
My friends that are left, they don't care how I'm dressed.
So being a boomer ain't bad.

Bridge

Hey boomer they yell when I'm driving too slow.
They think I got no-where to go.
Reality is I got places to be,
I'm slow cause in fact I can't see.

Being a boomer ain't bad
Can't remember enough to be sad
Each day of the week is the same to me now.
So being a boomer ain't bad.

Kazoo solo to melody of bridge

Being a boomer ain't bad
Can't remember enough to be sad

Each day of the week is the same to me now.

So being a boomer ain't bad.

Key change from C to D flat

Being a boomer 's O. K.

I get to go outside and play.

I credit my points to titanium joints.

Now being a boomer 's O. K.

Key change from D flat to E flat

Being a boomer is great.

No worry 'bout staying up late.

The things that I do never start before two.

Yes, being a boomer is great.

Bridge

Hey boomer they yell when I get in their way.

They think I can hear what they say.

I give them a look with a shake of my head.

My hearing aid batteries are dead.

Being a boomer ain't bad

Can't remember enough to be sad

Each day of the week is the same to me now.

So being a boomer; being a boomer; yes being a boomer ain't bad.

Spoken:

When you play me off, can someone help me find my way out of here?
