SKILLS

I excel at customer interaction, driven by my strong people skills. As an actress, singer, dancer, and podcast host, I have extensive experience engaging audiences and making others feel comfortable. My time at Aberystwyth University and Murdoch University has further honed my creative and technical abilities in drama, voice, editing, and performance. I've developed a strong understanding of storytelling, content creation, and public speaking, as well as expertise in podcast production, video editing, and social media marketing. Passionate about social media, I actively connect with communities on platforms like Instagram, Snapchat, and TikTok, having grown my Instagram following to over 12,000. I am seeking a role that allows me to combine my interpersonal strengths, leadership, and media skills to build meaningful connections and create engaging content.

EXPERIENCE

February – June 2025

Murdoch University (Australia) – Study Abroad Program. – Podcasting, Public Speaking, Screenwriting, Acting

- Podcasting Skills: Gaining hands-on experience in podcast production, editing, and content creation, with a focus on engaging storytelling and audio/video techniques that can enhance your brand's digital presence.
- Public Speaking & Communication: Developing strong presentation and public speaking skills, improving my ability to communicate effectively in both individual and group settings, which is valuable for client interaction and team collaboration.
- Creative Media Production (Screenwriting & Acting): Studying the craft of screenwriting and acting, which hones my creativity, attention to detail, and ability to convey messages in compelling and dynamic ways across multiple platforms (including social media and video content).
