

Cold Moon

December's Full Moon

The month that is considered the coldest one, in North America. Hence the name "Cold Moon".

Fae Magick

A time for connecting with the Fae and seeking their guidance and wisdom for introspection and reflection. All Winter and Snow Fae are mainly associated with this full moon, like Frost Fairies and Chionodoxa.

As the last full moon of the year, it marks a time of reflection, introspection, and closure. This lunar event graces the sky during the darkest nights, symbolizing the return of light and the promise of renewal as we approach the winter solstice.

Spiritually, the December Full Moon invites us to look back on the past year, assessing our experiences, lessons learned, and personal growth. It's a time to release what no longer serves us, making space for new intentions and fresh beginnings in the coming year. This full moon's energy encourages deep inner work, allowing us to shed old patterns and embrace transformation.

The December Full Moon also fosters a sense of connection with nature and the cycles of the Earth. As we gather warmth and light during these long nights, we're reminded of the enduring strength and resilience found in the natural world.

In essence, the December Full Moon is a powerful time for reflection, release, and renewal. It encourages us to honor the past, embrace the present, and look forward to the future with hope and intention.

Magickal Works

In December, the full moon signifies renewal, reflection, and celebration. It's prime time for magickal works such as reflection and introspection rituals, spells for new beginnings, protection and healing magick, and rituals to celebrate achievements and milestones.
