NEW MOON IN SAGITTARIUS RITUAL GUIDE

As the year draws toward its close, the New Moon in Sagittarius arrives on December 19 like a spark of hope in the winter sky. This lunation is a sacred pause between what has been and what is becoming — an invitation to lift your eyes from the past and look toward the horizon of possibility.

RITUAL TOOLS FOR YOUR ALTAR

Choose what you have. Keep it simple and meaningful.

- A purple or deep blue candle (or white)
- A small bowl of water (optional, for emotional clarity)
- Paper + pen
- A crystal (pick one): Amethyst, Citrine, Lapis Lazuli, Sodalite, Turquoise

Optional: incense (cedar, frankincense, or sage), calming music, a cozy blanket

SET THE SPACE

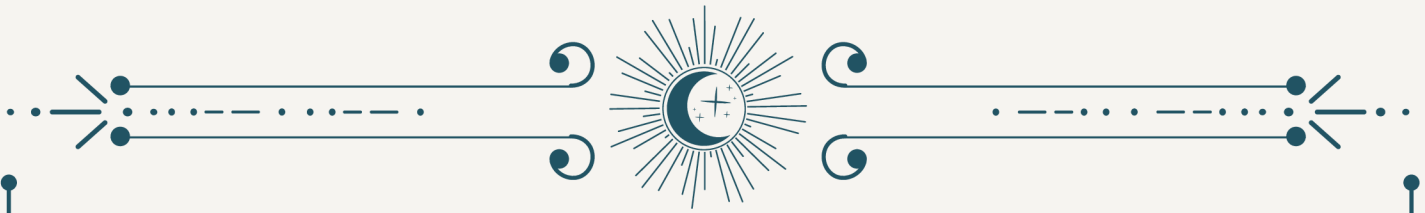

- Tidy your space just enough to feel peaceful.
- Light your candle and take 5 slow breaths.

Say softly:

“I open this space for truth, hope,
and new beginnings.”

RELEASE THE OLD STORY

On your paper, write a belief
you're releasing:

Examples:

- "I'm too late."
- "I don't know enough to begin."
- "My dream is unrealistic."
- "I can't trust myself."

Then write:

"I bless what this belief taught me, and I let it go."

Tear the paper (or safely burn it), and imagine the old story dissolving into the night.

AIM YOUR INTENTION

Sagittarius energy loves a clear target.

Write one bold intention that feels expansive and meaningful.

Use this format:

"I choose to grow through
_____."

"I am open to opportunities that support
_____."

"I commit to the path of _____."

Now add one sentence that makes it real:
One step I can take this week is:

SPEAK IT LIKE A SPELL

Hold your crystal at your heart (or solar plexus) and speak your intention aloud 3 times

Then say:

“May my path rise to meet me.

May my courage stay steady.

May my spirit lead.”

OPTIONAL TAROT PULL

Pull 1–3 cards.

Card 1: What is expanding for me
now?

Card 2: What belief must shift?

Card 3: What guidance supports my next step?

If you want a Sagittarius-flavored deck moment, look for:

Temperance, The Fool, Wheel of Fortune, Knight of Wands, Judgement.
