NEW MOON IN SCORPIO

RITUAL GUIDE

If Libra season asked you to find balance, the Scorpio New Moon invites you to dive beneath the surface into the places where true healing happens. This is where honesty, intuition, instinct, and shadow merge to help you shed what you have outgrown and rise renewed. This lunation isn't about small intentions. It's about the ones you've been afraid to speak — the desires you keep tucked away in the deepest chambers of your soul.

RITUAL: THE UNDERWORLD RELEASE & REBIRTH RITE

A powerful ritual for releasing old cycles and calling in your rebirth.

You'll Need:

- A black or dark red candle
- A fire-safe bowl
- A piece of paper + pen
- A black stone (obsidian, onyx, smoky quartz)
- Optional: mugwort or patchouli incense

RITUAL: THE UNDERWORLD RELEASE & REBIRTH RITE

1. Light your candle and incense. Sit in darkness or low light.
2. Place your hand over your heart. Breathe until your mind softens.
3. Write down what you're ready to release — a habit, fear, pain, pattern, or old identity.
4. Hold the paper and read it aloud, ending with:
5. "This is no longer mine to carry. I release it now."
6. Burn the paper in your bowl (safely).
7. Hold your black stone and repeat:
8. "I reclaim my power. I rise new."
9. Sit in silence for a few minutes. Feel the shift.
10. Close your ritual by blowing out the candle with intention.

This ritual is potent. You may feel emotional, lighter, or energized — all are signs of release.
