

- A Palm Reading is a session where a palm reader examines the lines, shapes, and features of your hands to offer insights into your personality, life path, and future. By analyzing the various aspects of your palms, such as the lines, mounts, and finger shapes, the reader interprets what these features reveal about your character, strengths, and potential life experiences.