Future Artist Demonstrations

August – Lisa Seaman, acrylic w/palette knife

September – Linden Kirby

October – Vikki Gray, cyanotype

November – Scott Roberts

No Paletteers meeting in July

Change Meeting Time?

Are you in favor of switching our monthly meeting time to 6:30pm to 8:30pm? This new time would allow members and artist demonstrators to get home earlier. We will vote on this proposal at the August meeting

Art Classes and Opportunities

CALL FOR ARTISTS

Corridor Creative Arts League is teaming up with Launch Pad Brewery in Bennett, CO for a rotating quarterly art show—and we're looking for local artists to feature in upcoming exhibits! Next Rotation: Early October - This is a high-visibility space with a great community vibe, perfect for showcasing your work. Space is limited, so we encourage artists to register early to secure a spot! Rotating quarterly, so ongoing opportunities!

Member Recognition

Linden Kirby's experimental watermedia piece entitled "Spring Comes to the Neighborhood" was juried in to Colorado Watercolor Society's exhibition with the theme "Finding Beauty in Unexpected Places." His 24"x18" painting is based on the view of spring from his backyard as the tree between his neighbor's houses begins to leaf out last March.

His painting will be part of the CWS show at Red Rocks Community College, 13300 W. 6th Avenue Frontage Road, Lakewood, CO, July 20 through September 10. Reception July 24, with awards at 6:30 pm is open to the public.
