

The World's First Global B2B Marketplace for the Eyewear Industry

Connecting Optical Stores & Eyewear Wholesalers
Worldwide

Vision And Concept

Our vision is to create one of a kind b2b marketplace for independent optical stores and eyewear wholesalers world wide. Opening up new partnerships and opportunities for business.

We plan to create a one of a technologically advanced Web, IOS and Android platform for the optical industry, connecting optical retailers with eyewear wholesalers world wide.

Eyewearfarm is set to become the world's only wholesale marketplace for optical industry, helping businesses buy and sell their eyewear products.

The platform will be similar to Alibaba.com with independent optical wholesalers creating their own stores and listing their products available to be bought by optical retailers worldwide.

The independent optical industry is worth 76B (according to our research) and we plan to have business transactions of 100M within the first year.
