

Musical Dictation & Dictogloss

Fill in the blanks in lyrics according to the song we listen to:

Seventeen Going Under

Written by Sam Fender

I remember the _____ was forever

I remember _____ videos

Cold Septembers, the _____ we covered

The _____ on the beach, the bizzies round us up

Do it all again next week

An _____ love

The first time that it scarred _____ yourself for someone

Crying like a child

And the boy who kicked Tom's head in

Still bugs me now

That's the thing, it _____

And _____ you when you're down

I was far too scared to hit him

But I would hit him in a _____ now

That's the thing with _____

It begs to stick around

So it can _____ you of your beauty

And leave you spent with _____ to offer

Makes you hurt the ones who love you

You hurt them like they're nothing

(Oh, oh)

You hurt them like they're nothing

(Oh, oh)

You hurt them like they're nothing

(Oh, oh)

See I spent my teens in _____ _____ in silence

And I armed myself with a _____

'Cause I was always the joker

Buried in their humor

Amongst the white noise and boys' boys

Locker-room talkin' lads' lads

Drenched in cheap drink and snide fags

A mirrored picture of my old man

Oh God, the kid's a dab hand _____ chanter, but he looks _____

God, the kid looks so _____

God, the kid looks so _____

She said the _____, the _____, the _____

So I thought about _____ (metaphorically)

And how she _____ and _____ and _____

Well, _____ came and died around here

I see my mother

The DWP see a number

She cries on the floor _____

I'm _____ going under

I'm _____ going under

(Oh, oh)

I'm _____ going under (oh, oh)

(Oh, oh)

I'm _____ going under (oh, oh)

(Oh, oh)

I'm _____ going under (oh, oh)

(Oh, oh)

(Oh)

Writing Task:

You are invited to write a letter for a column in the South China Morning Post to offer advice on teenage problems in Hong Kong locally, and/ or globally.

Firstly, what are the points or key observations you have to offer?

- (1) _____

- (2) _____

- (3) _____

- (4) _____

Can you elaborate on each point with phenomenon, real cases, figures or other evidence?