Tentative List of internship activities:

- o Apply for and acceptance into program
  - o Attendance at August meeting
  - o List of activities to complete within topic month:
    - Meet with Public Health about topic
    - Presentation to high school peers
    - Elementary school pop-in session
    - Article in local paper
    - Article in elementary newsletter
    - Posters created and displayed in school
    - Social media posting
  - o Elementary school health fair in April

Now Accepting Applications

Kidder County District Health Unit seeks applications for no more than 7 motivated students who are interested in the health sciences, connecting with peers, and collaborating in the community. A $500 stipend will be offered to each student selected and given once he/she completes a list of specific activities.

What You'll Do

Students will work closely with Kidder County District Health Unit nurses on selected health topics to present to peers throughout the school year. Topics will target areas of concern within the school: nutrition, mental health, social media, etc. Each student will select a topic of interest and a specific month to complete activities. There will be a group session meeting in August, a health education topic presented by one student in a variety of ways each month, and will conclude with a health fair to the elementary school students in the spring.
