Letter of Rejection for the Position

[Applicant's Name]

[Applicant's Address]

[City, State, ZIP Code]

Dear [Applicant's Name],

I hope this letter finds you well. I want to take a moment to express my gratitude for your interest in the [Position Name] at Fern Flower - Nature School and for participating in our interview process. It was a pleasure getting to know you and learning about your qualifications and passion for early childhood education.

After careful consideration and a thorough review of all candidates, we regret to inform you that we have chosen another candidate for the [Position Name] role. While your skills and experience are undoubtedly impressive, the selection process was highly competitive, and the decision was challenging.

We genuinely appreciate the time and effort you invested in the application and interview process, and we were impressed by your commitment to the field of Early Childhood Education. Your qualifications and enthusiasm are commendable, and we encourage you to consider applying for future positions at Fern Flower - Nature School.

We understand that receiving news like this can be disappointing, but please know that this decision does not diminish your potential or your qualifications. We hope that you will continue your pursuit of a rewarding career in the childcare and education industry.

Thank you once again for considering Fern Flower - Nature School as your potential employer, and we wish you every success in your future endeavors.

If you have any questions or require feedback on your application or interview, please do not hesitate to reach out to our Director / Manager at fernfloweratureschool@gmail.com or 250-299-2054.
