

QUILLVILLE CONTAINMENT BRIEF

– INFECTION TRIAD ACTIVE

QUILLVILLE INFILTRATION ALERT – REGION CODE: CVΔ21
DO NOT DISTRIBUTE BELOW CLEARANCE TIER 3

Operational Summary:

The towns of Fresno, Reedley, and Clovis are experiencing dimensional fractures—believed to be early-stage seepage from Quillville, the cursed township that overlays (and occasionally invades) central California territory. This triad of events represents three symptoms of a larger paranormal parasitic outbreak:

NODE A — Fresno: The Melt

- Victim: Mallory Ortiz
 - Leak Type: Thermal Dissolution
 - Quillville Influence: Urban glyph near Meux Mansion glitched during June solstice; suspected origin of localized heat rift.
 - Residual Effect: Puddle behaves like Quillville ectoplasm. Voice loops suggest psychic residue.
 - Theory: Emotional trauma opened a grief vent.

🔴 NODE B — Reedley: The Freeze

- Victim: Dorian Ruiz
- Leak Type: Cryo Fracture / Time Lock
- Quillville Influence: Site overlaps with a buried orchard used for old blood rituals (Korrow bloodline).
- Residual Effect: Frost lingers unnaturally. Glove glyph matches Listening Mark prototype.
- Theory: Mental detachment triggered memory vault rupture.

NODE C — Clovis: The Sink

- Victim: Alicia Romero
 - Leak Type: Submersion / Liquid Absorption
 - Quillville Influence: Drains connected to Living Lakes show tonal frequencies identical to Elmwood's east basin.
 - Residual Effect: Water appears in sealed locations. Audio hallucinations escalate during silence.
 - Theory: Subject fell into a sympathy sinkhole. Absorbed through acoustic grief seam.

⚠ ACTIVE LEAK TRIANGLE

These three towns form a near-perfect triangle when mapped.

When plotted over early Quillville expansion drafts, the shape matches the “Tremble Gate” glyph:

A sigil used to re-open sealed dimensional overlaps tied to the Founding 21.

Further Investigation:

- Are victims related (genetically/spiritually) to any of the Founding Families?
 - Is this a controlled breach from within Quillville—or is the town itself leaking by accident?
 - Why are the emotions melting, freezing, and sinking the body, but leaving behind conscious remnants?

Conclusion:

Fresno, Reedley, and Clovis may be early signs of a wider Infection Pattern. The land remembers what Quillville fed it.

Now it's hungry again.

“They don't scream when they disappear.

They sigh. And then the world bends.”
