

Documentaries - Max Jourdan Productions Ltd.

Nollywood. Producer. Series of 5 films looking into various aspects of Nigeria's emerging film industry (third largest in the world) from Muslim and Christian censorship issues to the rights/wrongs of using dwarves.

Al Jazeera Int'l. Entertainment. (Broadcast December 31st 2006-April 5th 2007)

All the President's Women. Producer. Examination into the roles of the newly appointed women politicians and ordinary women in President Johnson-Sirleaf's Liberia, presented by Juliana Ruhfus.

Al Jazeera Int'l. Social Affairs 'Everywoman' (Broadcast March 2007)

Liberia's Army of Discontent. Producer. Investigation into the demobilisation of Liberia's ex-combatants after 14 years of civil war, presented by Juliana Ruhfus.

Al Jazeera Int'l. Current Affairs 'People & Power'

(First short documentary shown on AJE's global launch 15th November 2006)

Firestone State. Producer. Investigation into labour abuses at Firestone's Liberian rubber plantation, presented by Juliana Ruhfus.

Al Jazeera International. Current Affairs 'People & Power' (Broadcast 8th January 2006)

The Man Who Owns A River. Producer. Examination into water privatisation in India, from a river owner's perspective and the effect on his local community.

Al Jazeera Int'l. Current Affairs

From Grass-roots to Global. Producer. Examination into the advantages and disadvantages of patenting and intellectual property rights in India.

Al Jazeera Int'l. Current Affairs