

A close-up photograph of two hands. The upper hand is holding a small, light-colored seed between its thumb and index finger, poised to drop it into the palm of the lower hand. The lower hand is held open, palm up, directly over a mound of dark, rich soil. Several other similar seeds are scattered across the surface of the soil. The background is a soft, out-of-focus green, suggesting an outdoor setting. The overall scene is a metaphor for planting, growth, and nurturing.

A good teacher
can inspire hope,
ignite imagination,
and instill a love of learning.
