

Readings June 29, 2025 – 3rd Sunday after Pentecost

First Reading: 1 Kings 19:15-16, 19-21

<sup>15</sup> Then the LORD said to [Elijah], “Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. <sup>16</sup> Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel, and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place.

<sup>19</sup> So he set out from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat, who was plowing. There were twelve yoke of oxen ahead of him, and he was with the twelfth. Elijah passed by him and threw his mantle over him. <sup>20</sup> He left the oxen, ran after Elijah, and said, “Let me kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you.” Then Elijah said to him, “Go back again, for what have I done to you?” <sup>21</sup> He returned from following him, took the yoke of oxen, and slaughtered them; using the equipment from the oxen, he boiled their flesh and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out and followed Elijah and became his servant.

PSALM 16

<sup>1</sup> Protect me, O God, for I take refuge in you;
I have said to the LORD, “You are my Lord, my good above all other.”

<sup>2</sup> All my delight is in the godly that are in the land, upon those who are noble among the people.

<sup>3</sup> But those who run after other gods shall have their troubles multiplied.

<sup>4</sup> I will not pour out drink offerings to such gods,
never take their names upon my lips.

<sup>5</sup> O LORD, you are my portion and my cup;
it is you who uphold my lot.

<sup>6</sup> My boundaries enclose a pleasant land;
indeed, I have a rich inheritance.

- <sup>7</sup> I will bless the LORD who gives me counsel;
my heart teaches me night after night.
- <sup>8</sup> I have set the LORD always before me;
because God is at my right hand, I shall not be shaken.
- <sup>9</sup> My heart, therefore, is glad, and my spirit rejoices;
my body also shall rest in hope.
- <sup>10</sup> For you will not abandon me to the grave,
nor let your holy one see the pit.
- <sup>11</sup> You will show me the path of life; in your presence there is fullness of joy, and in your right hand are pleasures forevermore.

Second Reading: Galatians 5:1, 13-25

<sup>1</sup> For freedom Christ has set us free. Stand firm, therefore, and do not submit again to a yoke of slavery.

<sup>13</sup> For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters, only do not use your freedom as an opportunity for self-indulgence, but through love become enslaved to one another. <sup>14</sup> For the whole law is summed up in a single commandment, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself." <sup>15</sup> If, however, you bite and devour one another, take care that you are not consumed by one another.

<sup>16</sup> Live by the Spirit, I say, and do not gratify the desires of the flesh. <sup>17</sup> For what the flesh desires is opposed to the Spirit, and what the Spirit desires is opposed to the flesh, for these are opposed to each other, to prevent you from doing what you want. <sup>18</sup> But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not subject to the law. <sup>19</sup> Now the works of the flesh are obvious: sexual immorality, impurity, debauchery, <sup>20</sup> idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, anger, quarrels, dissensions, factions, <sup>21</sup> envy, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these. I am warning you, as I warned you before: those who do such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.

<sup>22</sup> By contrast, the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, <sup>23</sup> gentleness, and self-control. There is no law against such things. <sup>24</sup> And those who belong to Christ have crucified the flesh with its passions and desires. <sup>25</sup> If we live by the Spirit, let us also be guided by the Spirit.
