

If you would want just a smaller wedding but more than just close friends, then this is the one for you. Good for groups up to 45. You can have a ritual, a poem, or a reading if you choose to have one. I can also add a personal story for your journey on how your romance all started. A small love story gives family and friends a chance to share in your magical day. All you have to do is choose the location you wish to get married, and we are set.

Note: This does not include the Official government marriage certificate from BDM as they will send you the link in an email once registered.
