

Your journey, your people, your love – beautifully told from beginning too forever.

The Whole Love Story is designed for couples who want their ceremony to be deeply personal, heartfelt and completely reflective of who they are.

This package allows space to truly tell your story — how you met, what you've shared, the moments that shaped you, and the love that led you to this day. It's perfect for couples who want family and friends to feel connected to their journey and fully present in a ceremony that feels meaningful, warm and unforgettable.

All you need to do is choose the location that feels right for you. From there, I'll guide you through every step and create a ceremony that flows beautifully and feels entirely you.

Please note: This package does not include the official government marriage certificate from Births, Deaths & Marriages. Once your marriage is registered, BDM will email you a link to apply directly.
