- Based on tickets availability, the order of sightseeing or days may change in the itinerary. For example: Disneyland day can be switched with city tour day in Paris and Titlis day can be switched with Jungfrau day in Switzerland. In case anyone wish to book any activities for leisure time, please consult with our team and then book the same.
- Any damages or penalty or additional expenses incurred on the tour will have to be paid on the tour by guests.
- In case of unforeseen delays due to weather, traffic, strict driving laws or any other conditions, packed lunch / dinner may be provided.
- Theft in Europe is now common. Guests are responsible for their own belongings including any valuables, passport or cash. Hotels in Europe don't share CCTV footage due to security reasons. Our company will not be involved in any legal proceedings regarding this matter.
- We design our itineraries so that all the necessary excursions and places of interest are included giving you the best possible holiday at an affordable price. However sometimes you could be offered optional excursions by your Tour Manager. These optional excursions are only possible if time permits and after completing your regular itinerary. Customers are entitled to refuse any optional offered.
- It is the responsibility of guests to be on time at the location given by your tour manager throughout the tour. Please note that any loss guests may face due to being left behind or by missing any connections will be incurred by guests themselves.
