SOCIAL MOVEMENTS AND CULTURAL REVOLUTIONS

Date: July 25th, 2025, Friday

Organised By

St. Mary's College (Autonomous), Thoothukudi, Tamilnadu

In Collaboration With,

About the International Multidisciplinary Seminar:

The International Multidisciplinary Seminar on Social Movements and Cultural Revolutions seeks to provide an inclusive and dynamic platform for scholars, activists, educators, and students to engage critically with the evolving narratives of social change across time and space. Social movements and cultural revolutions have played a transformative role in shaping societies challenging established structures, inspiring collective consciousness, and catalysing progressive reforms in politics, economy, education, gender relations, ecology, and identity. This seminar aims to explore the origins, trajectories, ideologies, and outcomes of various historical and contemporary movements from anti-colonial struggles, feminist waves, and civil rights activism to environmental justice campaigns, Dalit movements, indigenous assertions, and digital age mobilizations. It will emphasize interdisciplinary approaches, bringing together insights from history, sociology, political science, literature, economics, media studies, law, and anthropology. We invite researchers and practitioners to contribute their perspectives, share field experiences, and participate in critical dialogues that challenge dominant narratives and reimagine paths toward social justice and collective empowerment.
