RE: OCD 201306428

Dear Mr. Scott:

The Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) acknowledges the receipt of your complaint.

The CCRB has jurisdiction to investigate complaints filed against officers of the New York City Police Department that allege excessive use of force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, or use of offensive language, including slurs relating to race, ethnicity, religion, gender, sexual orientation and disability. We have determined that your complaint does not fall within the board's jurisdiction, either because the allegations do not fall within our jurisdiction or because the subject of the allegations is a civilian employee of the police department.

The Office of the Chief of Department (OCD) of the New York City Police Department has jurisdiction to investigate complaints that question the validity of summonses and arrests, and the competence with which police officers perform their general duties; it is also authorized to investigate complaints filed against civilian employees of the police department. Therefore, we have referred your complaint to the Office of the Chief of Department for investigation.

An OCD control number has been obtained for you and it appears at the top of this page. An investigator assigned by the Office of the Chief of Department will contact you and will handle all further action regarding your complaint.

If you have any questions, please contact the Office of the Chief of Department, 300 Gold Street 3rd Floor, Brooklyn, New York 11201, telephone number (718)-834-3382. Please refer to your OCD control number when making all inquiries.

Sincerely,

Denise Alvarez
