11 Days - Itinerary

Day-1 Arrival at Tribhuvan International airport Kathmandu

Welcome & briefing by our representative for assisted transfer to the hotel. Check-in at your hotel for night stay.

Day-2 Kathmandu Sightseeing & flying to Nepalgunj
Start your day with breakfast & then visit to renowned Pashupati Nath & Buda Nilkantha temple in Kathmandu. Later our representative will transfer the group to Kathmandu domestic airport terminal for boarding the flight to Nepalgunj. After one hour flight arrive at Nepalgunj. In the evening a short briefing session shall be organized for the group where our Kailash Yatra guide and expert will share their experiences with you and will answer to your queries related to Kailash Mansarovar travel. Dinner and night stay will be at the hotel in Nepalgunj.

Day-3 Fly Nepalgunj to Simikot

The flight between Nepalgunj to Simikot is a very complicated part of this trip as the operation of those small aircrafts completely depends on the weather conditions. The weather keeps changing very frequently on this route and it sometimes causes short or long delay in flight operation to and from Simikot. We shall reach Nepalgunj airport early in the morning as directed by the local guide to ensure that we can board the earliest possible flight to Simikot. As this 45 minutes flight lands the small airport of Simikot you will see our representative waiting for you to take you to the guesthouse booked for you.

Rest of the time will be free at Simikot to acclimatize with the weather conditions. Max. Elevation: 2910m & Distance covered- 297 km by flight/ 55mins.

Day-4 Fly Simikot to Hilsa by chartered helicopter

Take early breakfast & reach Simikot airport to board your Helicopter to Hilsa. At Hilsa, we have to walk through the swinging bridge to cross the river and reach the other side where we will be completing formalities at Nepal immigration. Then we cross the border by walk and board our Chinese bus which takes us to China immigration office situated just 5 minute drive away. A short drive will take you to your hotel at Taklakot/Purang. (Taklakot & Purang are the same town, the administrative center of Burang County in Tibet, also known as Purang). Before reaching Purang, we have to again go through customs check at Burang custom office. After a tiring day you have reached to Purang (3750 meters). If you suffer/feel breathlessness or any other symptoms of high altitude sickness, please do not panic & contact our tour guide for seeking his suggestions. Health issues related to high altitude sickness are quite common here. Please eat properly, drink good amount of water, juices and other healthy drinks, follow the instructions of your guide and do not expose yourself to strong wind. Spend time in the hotel while acclimatizing. Dinner and stay will be in the hotel at Purang.

Day-7 Darchen to Dirphuk

1st Day parikrama/kora of Mt. Kailash, 13 Kms trekking to Dirapuk

Moving ahead next early morning after breakfast, all pilgrims have opportunity to pass through Yama Dwar before the trek commences. The SOUTH face of Mount Kailash, considered the "spine of Lord Shiva" by Hindu pilgrims, is visible from Yamadwar. After visiting Yam Dwar continue trekking on foot or hire a horse/pony to ride. (those who wish to hire horse/pony and porter may do it directly with the help of the Tibetan guide on direct payment basis base camp of Kailash. Packed lunch will be provided to group.

After completing the 12 kms gradual trek, passing through beautiful rivers and grassland you will find a huge majestic black color mountain standing high, on the right side of your trek. Diraphuk gives NORTH face of Kailash darsan. Don't miss to take some photographs and selfie and capture this great sight in your eyes and camera. On reaching Dirapuk check into the guesthouse where stay and dinner is organized for this night. The night is going to be very cold and oxygen level will be low, therefore it is advisable that you take rest as much as possible to maintain good health for next day trek.

Day-8 Dirphuk to Zuthulpukh

2nd Day Parikrama, 19 Kms Trek To Zuthulpukh

Wake up very early morning before dawn and if the weather is clear don't miss to witness the glory of 'Golden Kailash' as the first sunlight kisses the top of the mount. After this unforgettable experience now time to move ahead and start trek to Zuthulpuk. The 22 kms long trek is the LONGEST and toughest day of the entire Yatra as you will have to pass through the highest point (5630m) at Dolma-La-Pass. On the way before Dolma La you will see site showing footprints of Milarepa and Shiva Tsal (The place where pilgrims leave behind their belongings, donate a drop of blood or a lock of hair to represent the act of leaving this life behind and wishing for the end of a miserable life. In Tibetan Buddhist religion it is said that you will get it (whatever you offered here at Shia Tsal) in heaven after your death. Continue to climb up towards Dolma-La pass (5630m) and then steep down to reach Gauri Kund. We should cross the high pass as early as possible before strong wind starts.

After crossing Dolma-La, you will see Gauri Kund/Parvati Kund at downhill in the RIGHT side of your path. EAST side of Kailash will be visible from Gaurikund. The downhill trail from the top of Dolma La is not easy due to rocky & loose stones all around so you should walk very carefully & remain with the group for any help you may need. Then after, you will catch soon flat trail that reach to Zuthulphuk Gompa (4790m). In Zuthulphuk dinner & overnight stay will be reserved.
