Manufactured using the highest quality of raw materials, at Arpan Pipes™ you can be rest assured that your projects are equipped with the best HDPE PIPES

Fittings

We at ARPAN Polyplast are proud to manufacture high-quality HDPE pipe fittings, designed for strength, durability, and reliable performance.

Our range of fittings, including bends, tees, and couplers, ensures leak-proof and corrosion-resistant connections for water, gas, sewage, and industrial systems. With a focus on precision and efficiency, we deliver long-lasting, maintenance-free solutions that meet the highest standards of quality.

Applications

High-density polyethylene (HDPE) pipes are used in many applications, including:

- Water supply: HDPE pipes are used to transport drinking water, reclaimed water, and irrigation water.
- Wastewater and drainage: HDPE pipes are used for sewage and drainage systems.
- Gas distribution: HDPE pipes are used for natural gas distribution systems.
- Fire protection: HDPE pipes are used for fire hydrant supply lines and building sprinkler systems.
- Industrial processes: HDPE pipes are used in industrial processes, such as acid/caustic lines, organic chemicals, and wastewater.
- Electrical and communication: HDPE pipes are used for electrical and communication conduits.
- Landfills: HDPE pipes are used to remove leachate water from landfills.
- Electricity generation: HDPE pipes are used in geothermal energy and hydroelectric dams.
- PHED / JJM: HDPE pipes deliver safe, clean water in PHED and Jal Jeevan Mission projects.
